PREFACE

Genealogy (from the Greek genea, family, and logos, word—an account of the descent of a person, family or group from an ancestor, according to Webster) is a rewarding pastime and, for some, profession. This work documents the latest leg of a time-space journey on which the author, like others, embarked not so long ago and on which he continues to sail joyfully—a voyage of rediscovery.

To the author's knowledge, no comprehensive, modern work recording the descendants of Rev. Leonard Metcalf of Tatterford Parish, Norfolk, England, has been published. This limited work only compiles a record of some of his descendants, and makes little attempt to follow the descendants of Rev. Leonard other than those of his son Michael Metcalf who emigrated from England to Dedham, Massachusetts, in 1637. Even so, the compilation includes thousands of those descendants.[1]

This three-volume work encompasses nine generations, including entries for descendants reaching maturity in the first half of the 19th century. Lists of any children and grandchildren of the ninth generation generally extend the period covered to the beginning of the 20th century. Volume I contains general descriptive and bibliographical information. This volume II contains the descendants in the first eight generations. Volume III contains the descendants in the ninth generation.

[1] This second edition includes corrections to information given in the first edition, new contributions from other people, and additional research on Leonard's descendants—particularly on the descendants of Michael's daughters Mary Metcalf (1619–1676) and her husband Henry Wilson and Elizabeth Metcalf (1626–1711) and her husband Lt. Thomas Bancroft. It has also been reformatted for publication on CD-ROM and viewing online.

Exposition on Rev. Leonard Metcalf:

The Reverend Leonard Metcalf of Tatterford is the earliest Metcalf(e) in this lineage who is considered proven by the best genealogical standards. The eminent genealogist George Andrews Moriarty concluded that "Considerable research shows the impossibility of establishing [beyond doubt] the ancestry of Michael Metcalf [the immigrant] beyond his father, Rev. Leonard Metcalf, rector of Tatterford in Norfolk . . . ."[1]

Dr. George Redmonds[2] regards Metcalf(e) as a distinctive surname (of a single family origin as opposed to multiple family origin) which "originated in the mountainous country where Yorkshire meets Westmorland." So the juncture of many, if not most or all, of the various Metcalf family branches at some point in their history is a virtual certainty.

Leonard, born in the hamlet of Apperside in Wensleydale, in the North Riding of Yorkshire, may be the son of a Richard Metcalfe of Apperside. Moriarty continues: " . . . Examination of the records of this region [Apperside] shows that a large number of the inhabitants bore the name of Metcalf. . . . The names Michael and Leonard were very common in the Metcalf family of this region, where the Metcalfs formed almost a clan. There can be no doubt that the gentle family of the neighboring Nappa Hall were related more or less remotely to the innumberable Metcalfs of the vicinage, but just how it is impossible to say, owing to the lack of wills."

Since Leonard's eldest son was named Richard, it is not unlikely that Leonard's father would be named Richard. The Lay Subsidies for Apperside in 1542–1544 lists Henry, Michael, Denis, Symon, Jone, Edward, Reginald, John and, most interestingly, Richard Metcalf. Leonard would have been too young to be included, but his father would not, and so the Richard named in the Apperside list could well have been Leonard's father. Indeed, another noted genealogist, Milton Rubincam, wrote in a review[3] that Moriarty's works "show that Michael's father Leonard was succeeded in the rectorship of Tatterford, Norfolk, by the Rev. Richard Metcalfe, the eldest son. For that reason, we may with justice theorize that the father of the Rev. Leonard was Richard, who appears at Apperset [sic] in Wensleydale, North Yorkshire, in 1542-4."

On the other hand, Leonard may be the son (or nephew) of Leonard Metcalfe of Beare Park in Marrick, Wensleydale, Yorkshire (born by about 1520, died by 1570), but no convincing evidence to that effect is extant.[4]

Leonard of Tatterford is not mentioned in the various English pedigrees. But Leonard of Beare Park appears is a couple of old pedigrees[5, 6] which, if believed, show him to be a descendant of Bryan Metcalfe of Beare Park (born about 1425), son of the famous James Metcalfe of Nappa (born in 1389, died in 1471/72). As an aside, Leonard of Beare Park may be the Leonard who joined in the Rebellion of the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland, called "The Rising of the North," in 1569. That Leonard's troubles with Queen Elizabeth I after its failure are described below,[7] where he is noted as "late" in 13 Elizabeth (1570). As a consequence, he lost his large estates in Yorkshire and resettled in Norfolk.[8]

> Leonard Metcalfe was condemned and narrowly escaped the scaffold, being "stayed for the second execution." He was attainted. He is described in the State Papers and the Bowes manuscripts relating to the rebellion in one list as Leonard Metcalfe, of Bere Park, Exq., and in another as Leonard Metcalfe of Bere Parke, gentleman. His name is first on the list of gentlemen prisoners at Carlisle, 30 December 1569. Among his 35 fellow prisoners occur the well-known names of Christopher and Marmaduke Norton, Symon Dygby, George Nevill, John and Henry Grene of Newby, Gerard Salvyn, Will Slingsby, Nicholas Fairfax and Thomas Plomtree, a priest and their preacher. On 1 January his name is in the list of prisoners in Durham Castle, and among the prisoners was Robert Lambert of Owton, Esq., afterwards father-in-law to his kinsman Anthony Metcalfe.
> A commission was appointed to try the principal rebels at York. Eleven were indicted for the conspiracy of treason and also for the rebellion, and all condemned to die. Four were executed at York on the 24 March 1570, namely Symon Dygby of Bedale, Esq., John Fulthorp of Islebeck, Esq., Robert Pennyman of Stokesley, gentleman, and Thomas Bishop, Junior, of Pocklington, gentleman. Seven were stayed for the second execution or until the Queen's pleasure should be known, six being John Markenfeld, Astolphe Cleasby, Leonard Metcalfe, Robert Lambert, Robert Claxton and Rauf Conyers.
> It was represented to the Queen that Leonard Metcalf was a servant or retainer of the Earl of Northumberland, whom he followed on that account, that he had made a state of his lands to his wife, so that by his life the Queen should have his lands and by his death the wife should presently have them, so that the Queen would win by his life and lose by his death. It was represented further that he had many children and that before the rebellion he was taken for a very honest, quiet man, and that he was generally lamented. In reply the Queen expressed her willingness to spare the lives of three, but with respect to the others said, "And for the four, Metcalfe, Lambert, Claxton, and Conyers, although we thynk it good that som furder example be showed we refer the same to your own judgement."
> The Commissioners did not accept the fearful discretion imposed upon them and, on 5 April, the Earl of Sussex wrote to the Secretary, Cecil, that as the Queen wanted some "further example of ye better sorte," they thought that Metcalfe, Lambert, Claxton and Conyer might be executed. None of the four were executed, but they were attainted. In the Bill of Attainder in 1570 Leonard is named as "Leonard Metcalfe, late of Beereparke, county of York, Esq."

Nevertheless, the Metcalfes of Beare Park appear to have remained true to the Roman Catholic faith of their forefathers. This faith numbered many partisans in the North Country. Sadler states in 1569, "There be not in all this countrey ten gentlemen that do favour and allowe of her Majesties proceedings in ye cause of religion."

But in spite of (1) the similarity of the names of the two Leonards, (2) Leonard of Beare Park being in the right place at the right time for the birth of Leonard of Tatterford, and (3) the probabilty that Leonard of Beare Park resettled in Norfolk while (as mentioned below) Leonard of Tatterford later became Rector of the Parish of Tatterford and Vicar of West Barsham, both in Norfolk, the evidence of a possible father-son relationship cannot be considered sufficiently compelling to accept unconditionally.[9]

We do know that Leonard of Tatterford was born in 1540 or 1541 in Apperside.[10] He was early educated at Sedburgh School, matriculated in the College of St. John's, Cambridge University, in 1563/4 and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1568/9.[11] He gave up Catholicism and took holy orders under the state church.[12] Leonard became Rector of the Parish of Tatterford in Norfolk in 1574 and Vicar of West Barsham in Norfolk in 1603 where he remained until his death.[13]

Leonard married Amy _____ about 1579, in all likelihood in Tatterford. She was born about 1558, probably in Tatterford.[14] Amy was buried on 22 December 1602 in Tatterford.[15]

Leonard was buried on 22 September 1616 in Tatterford[16] and was later succeeded as Rector by his son Richard Metcalf.

Leonard and Amy had eight children.[17, 18]

The book is available in single copies from the Higginson Book Company of Salem, Massachusetts. Chapter II carries the royal genealogies back to Cerdic (467–534), King of Wessex, while Chapter I carries describes Cerdic's mythic genealogy back to Harderich (75 BC–?), King of the Saxons. Chapter V contains the Scottish royal ancestry linking into Chapter III.

[14] Her approximate birth year is inferred from the birth dates of her first child (Richard, born probably in 1580 when Amy was about age 22) and her last child (Marie, born certainly in 1601 when Amy was about age 43). The LDS Ancestral File (entry number 2BZK-FB), shows her date of birth as 1547—not likely since she would have been 53 or 54 years old at the birth of her last child. Her place of birth is given as Tallesford, Norfolk, England—probably a misreading of Tatterford.

[17] Ibid., 64, includes all the listed children except Michael and Richard. Entries for the years 1570, 1579, 1580, 1585, 1590 and 1592 are missing.

[18] George Andrews Moriarty, "Metcalf: Additional Records," New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. LXXXVI (1932), 253, shows James, born on 14 March 1579/80 who married Joan Cooke on 30 January 1602/3 at St. Micheal on the Hill, Lincoln. No further evidence of James as a son of Leonard has been found and the name James does not otherwise appear in Leonard's descendants, so he is not included as one of Leonard's children.

Second Generation

Issue of [1]Rev. Leonard Metcalf [no. 1] and Amy _____

2. [2]Rev. Richard Metcalf, son of [1]Rev. Leonard Metcalf [no. 1] and Amy _____. Born in 1580 in Tatterford Parish, Norfolk, England. Died when 76 or 77 years old. Buried on 11 March 1656/7 in Tatterford Parish.

Married Mary _____ say in 1612 in England when 31 or 32 years old. Mary _____ b. in England; bur. on 24 March 1643/4.

Issue of Rev. Richard Metcalf and Mary _____:

4 i. son [3]Rev. Leonard Metcalf bap. on 15 Aug. 1613 in Tatterford Parish.

5 ii. son Richard Metcalf bap. on 15 Jan. 1614/5 in Tatterford Parish.

iii. son John Metcalf bap. on 15 Nov. 1618 in Tatterford Parish; d. in infancy; bur. on 31 Jan. 1619 in Tatterford Parish.

Exposition on Rev. Richard Metcalf:

The parish register entries for 1579 and 1580 are missing, but present for 1581 to 1584 wherein Richard does not appear. His next younger sibling, John, is known to have been baptized in 1583, and the next in 1586—so the year 1580 is preferred over 1579.

"1656 Richard Metcalf, clerk, 11 March [1656/7]."[1]

Richard received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Christ's College, Cambridge University, in 1604/5. He was ordained a deacon in Norwich on 26 May 1605 and a priest on 25 January 1606/7. He was Rector of Tatterford in 1615, probably following his father's retirement.[2]

Exposition on Michael Metcalf:

Michael[1, 2, 3, 4, 5] was born in 1590[6] in the Parish of Tatterford in Norfolk, England. While the earlier Yorkshire Metcalfes were, as far as is known, zealous Catholics, the Norfolk family was forced into becoming zealous Protestants, and Michael, at least, became a staunch Puritan.

Michael married Sarah Ellwyn on 13 October 1616 in Hingham (Heigham), near Norwich, in Norfolk.[7] She was born and baptized on 17 June 1593 in Hingham,[8] the daughter of Thomas Elwyn and Elizabeth Benslye of Hingham, the Elwyns being a distinguished family in Norfolk.[9]

In 1619–1634 Michael was Warden of St. Benedict's in Norwich.[10] He also owned a cloth factory in Norwich and there he employed more than a hundred men making material known as Damask, or Dornix—material used for making curtains, carpets and other hangings. Hence he has been referred to by his descendants as "The Dornix Weaver."

However, like most Puritans, Michael and his family felt persecuted for their religious beliefs. So, with his family and probably other local Metcalfs, Michael emigrated through Great Yarmouth in Norfolk to Dedham, Massachusetts, in 1637.

They left Ipswich in Suffolk, their last port in England, aboard the Rose on 15 April and arrived in Boston, Massachusetts, on 8 June 1637.[11, 12] There they founded the very extensive branch of the family in New England and other Northern States which commonly does not use the terminal e.

"Many of these Metcalfs, along with others in England, were severely harassed by Bishop Wren, a vigorous opponent of Puritanism, who was eventually tried by Parliament during the reign of Oliver Cromwell" for acts committed by him during his term of two years and four months as the Holy See of Norwich.[13, 14] Howell's State Trials, Volume IV, page 33, cites Article XVI of the impeachment:

> That by suppressing means of knowledge and salvation, and introducing ignorance, superstition and profaneness, many [some 3,000] of his majesty's subjects which used trades, spinning, weaving, and making of cloth, stuffs, and other manufactures of wool—and making of cloth . . . that is to say Daniel Sonning, Michael Metcalf, John Besant, Nicholas Metcalf, and many others, some of whom setting a hundred poor people to work, have removed themselves into Holland and other parts beyond the seas, and there set up and taught the natives the said manufactures, to the great hindrance of trade in this kingdom, and to the impoverished, and bringing to extreme want of very many who were by these parties set to work, to the great prejudice of his Majesty and his people.

The defense of Bishop Wren alleged that Michael and Nicholas Metcalf (possibly Michael's brother) were "call'd in question for some Words against the King, and so slipt away" to New England.[15] Michael tells us of his journey to America below:[16, 17]

> To all the true professors of Christ's Gospel within the city of Norwich:
> . . . I was persecuted in the land of my father's sepulchres, for not bowing at the name of Jesus, and observing other ceremonies in religion, forced upon me, at the instance of Bishop Wren, of Norwich, and his chancellor Dr. Corbet, whose violent measures troubled me in the Bishop's Court, and returned me into the High Commissioner's Court. Suffering many times for the cause of religion, I was forced, for the sake of the liberty of my conscience, to flee from my wife and children, to go into New-England; taking ship for the voyage at London, the 17th of Sepr 1636; being by tempests tossed up and down the seas till the Christmas following, then veering about to Plymouth in Old England, in which time I met with many sore afflictions.
> Leaving the ship, I went down to Yarmouth, in Norfolk county, whence I shipped myself and family, to come to New-England; sailed 15th April, 1637, and arrived three days before midsummer, with my wife, nine children and a servant.

> [In a postscript Michael wrote] . . . my enemies conspired against me to take my life, and, sometimes, to avoid their hands, my wife did hide me in the roof of the house, covering me over with straw.

In the new world, Michael was admitted as a Townsman at Dedham on 14 July 1637[18] and joined the local church on 16 January 1639. He was made a freeman of the town on 13 May 1640, was chosen a Selectman of Dedham in 1641 and headed a committee to design a new meeting house. By 1641 Michael owned one of the principal clay pits on Dedham Island, the clay being used for the new industry of brickmaking.

Sarah died on 30 November 1644 at Dedham,[19] and Michael married second Mrs. Mary (Sothy) Pidge, a widow of Roxbury, Massachusetts, on 13 August 1645 in Dedham.[20, 21, 22] Michael and Mary had no children, although Mary had children from her previous marriage.

In 1657 Michael was the schoolmaster of Dedham.[23] Michael died on 24 December 1664[24, 25, 26] and was buried three days later. Mary survived him. His will dated 15 September 1664, three months before his death, follows:[27, 28, 29]

Michael's birth and death are listed in Ricker, 8738.[30] Reference is made to Center Cemetery in Lebanon, Connecticut. Perhaps a cenotaph or monument was placed there. His birth year is noted as 1586.

Michael and Sarah had eleven children, the first seven baptized at St. Benedict in Norwich and the last four at St. Edmondsbury.[31, 32, 33, 34]

Norfolk, testifies regarding the practices of the clergyman of St. Edmond's, Norwich. (Deposition Book, 1635.)" This makes Michael born in 1589 or 1590. Moriarty also notes that the entries for the year 1590 are missing from the the copies of Parish Registers of Tatterford; but that those for 1586 to 1589, 1591 and all but four later years are extant and do not mention Michael. Moriarty said that therefore Michael must have been born in 1590.

Michill Metcalfe of Norwich, dornix weaver, age 45 [sic] and his wife Sarra [Ellwyn] aged 39 [sic], and 8 children Michill, Thomas, Marey, Sarrah, Elizabeth, Martha, Joane [Jane] and Rebeca; and his servant Thomas Comberbach aged 16, to Boston to inhabit . . . " (Note the usage of the terminal e.)

[12] However, Charles Edward Banks, The Planters of the Commonwealth (Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., 1991), 184–185, lists the preceding eight children plus son John, i. e., all nine children known to be alive at the time. This is confirmed by Michael's own words stating that he sailed "with my wife, nine children and a servant." So John must have shown up for a later exam, or simply missed it. Banks further states that the John and Dorothy and the Rose left together from Ipswich, that their passengers cannot be allocated between the two ships and that the ships arrived in Boston on 8 June 1637. The arrival date is confirmed when Michael states they arrived "three days before midsummer" which would make their arrival 8 June 1637, given that midsummer (the summer solstice) fell on 11 June old style (21 June new style). Michael's statement that "I went down to Yarmouth, in Norfolk county, whence I shipped myself and family, to come to New-England; [then] sailed 15th April, 1637 . . . " together with Wilson's record that the Rose was of Yarmouth while the John and Dorothy was of Ipswich indicates Michael and his family were aboard the Rose. Wilson's dates of examination in Ipswich (8–13 April) and Michael's statement show that they embarked from Ipswich on the 15th.

The Hon. John George Metcalf was in error when he stated the letter was written before Michael's first attempt, the date of the letter being in old style and the letter having been written in January 1637 new style—after September 1636 and before April 1637.

[18] Charles William Metcalf writes: "For those arriving [in Boston] in 1637, most of the original land had already been distributed to settlers. They moved to Dedham. Exposition on Sarah Elwyn:

Sarah Metcalf "wife of our brother Michael Metcalf Senr died comfortably Novr 30, 1644, aged 51 yrs 5 mo. 13 days. She was born at Wagnham near Norwich June 17, 1593—married October 13, 1616" The quotation is from the records of the First Parish Church of Dedham.[1]

"His [Michael's] wife, Sarah, was born in the adoining [to Norwich] town of Waynham, (?) June 17, 1593, where they were married Oct. 13, 1616. . . . His wife, Sarah, died Nov. 30, 1644 . . . "[2]

The above quote is later corrected:[3]

> The statement in the Metcalf genealogy published in the Register (vol. 6, p. 171), that his [Michael's] wife Sarah was born at "Waynham," should be corrected, for an entry in the records of the First Church of Dedham, Mass., states that she was born at Heigham, near Norwich [co. Norfolk], 17 June 1593. She was a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Benslye) Elwyn of that parish (see Mr. Moriarty's article on "The Elwyns of Norfolk," in Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica for March 1926), the Elwyns being a distinguished family in that county.

Sarah also appears in the LDS Ancestral File, version 4.19, AFN 2BZK-HN.

Exposition on Mary Sothy:

Torrey[1, 2] lists the marriage of Mary Sothy to Thomas Pidge on 1 November 1619 in Saffron Walden, Essex, England.

Michael Metcalf married Mary Pigge on 13 August 1645 in Dedham.[3]

"[Michael] m. 2d widow Mary Pidge, of Roxbury, Aug. 12, 1645."[4]

"Pigg, Pidge, or Pigge, . . . Thomas of Roxbury, freem. 14 May 1634, wh. brot. [possibly Robert] from Eng. w. Mary, and sev. ch. had here Martha, bapt. 12 Mar. 1643, and he d. 30 Dec. foll. His will, pro. 12 Sept. 1644, gives Thomas, John, Hannah, Sarah, and Martha, propty. in R. and to d. Martha, w. I think of Nicholas Wood, his allotm. in Dedham. His wid. m. 13 Aug. 1645, Michael Metcalf."[5]

The will referred to above (from NEHGR, Vol. III, 78–79) follows:

> Thomas Pig.
> 14 (7) 1644 [in margin.]
> Be it knowne to all men that this is the will of Thomas Pig,[6] that he doth give to his sonne Thomas the house wth the home lott, 2 acres of fresh marsh, also my lott by the dead swamp, & all the land in the neck both upland & Marsh, & the 5 acres at the great lots end. Wife to haue all I haue so long as she liues to bring vp my children. After her death my children to have their portions as aforesaid.
> Giles Payson. Robert Williams.
> Testifyed before mr Winthrop Dep: Gov: & Mr. Nowell the (7) 12-1644.

"Pigg, Thomas [Pig. Church Record.], householder [dropsy and a fall which injured his kidneys. Church Record.], bur. Dec. 30, 1643."[8]

His surname appears to have been pronounced "Pidge."

"Pigg, Pidge, or Pigge, . . . Thomas, Dedham, s. of the preced. [Thomas], d. early in Sept. 1660, prob. never m. at least his br. John and sis. had his prop. Geneal. Reg. X. 180."[9] This is Thomas and Mary's elder son.

His estate was administered by his brother:

> Thomas Pigge.—Administration to the estate of the late Thomas Pigge, of Dedham, lately deceased, is Graunted to John Pigge, his Brother, in behalfe of himselfe & his sisters. An inventory of the Goods was taken, 5 : 7 mo : 1660. Amt. including debts, due £42. 3s. 8d. as witnesses by Nathan Aldis & Peter Woodard.
> John Pigg deposed, 30th Octr 1660.

Thomas and Mary's younger son, John Pigge, married Mary Farrington on 27 April 1667 in Dedham. They had in Dedham (1) John, born 16 August 1670, and (2) Mary, born 26 October 1673. Mary (Farrington) Pigge died on 22 April 1676 in Dedham. John (senior) married second Elizabeth Newcomb on 3 July 1677 in Dedham. They had in Dedham (1) Jonathan, born 4 April 1678, (2) Elizabeth, born 12 March 1681, (3) Josiah, born 11 December 1683, and (4) Hannah, born 22 November 1686.[10]

"Pigg, Pidge, or Pigge, . . . John, Dedham, prob. s. of Thomas, freem. 1690, print. in the list Pidg, as the name of his mo. in the Metcalf genealog. is spelt Pidge, wh. may show the sound."[11]

"Pigg, Martha, d. Thomas, Mar. 12, 1642. [1642–3.]"[12] This is Thomas and Mary's youngest child.

Benjamin Bullard married Martha Pigge on 5 April 1659 in Dedham.[13]

Anderson[14] records Thomas and his family: Thomas born by 1594 based on his marriage; married Mary Sothy on 1 November 1619 in Saffron Walden, Esssex, England; migrated to Massachusetts in 1633; died 30 December 1643 in Roxbury, Massachusetts; will proven on 12 or 14 September 1644.

Children of Thomas and Mary: 1. Mary born say 1622; married Nicholas Wood before 25 December 1642 when she was pregnant in her childbed in Roxbury. 2. Ann buried on 9 March 1626/7 in Saffron Walden. 3. Sarah baptized on 30 November 1626, buried there on 25 August 1629. 4. Hannah baptized on 25 May 1629 in Saffron Walden; unmarried in 1644. 5. Thomas baptized on 12 December 1631 in Saffron Walden; buried there on 25 July 1632. 6. Thomas born about 1635; noted as age eighteen on 20 June 1653; died by 5 September 1653. 7. Sarah born say 1637; married Thomas Metcalf, her stepbrother, on 12 September 1656, her name noted as Sarah Paige. 8. John born say 1640; married Mary Farrington on 27 April 1667 in Dedham. 9. Martha, b. 12 March 1642/3 in Roxbury; married Benjamin Bullard on 5 April 1659 in Dedham.

Information about Mary's parents was extracted from the IGI and the LDS Ancestral File where Mary is found in record 8JD5-TL. Such information cannot be considered reliable without further substantiation from primary and other source documentation, and is included here only as possible clues as to her parents.

Married Mary Fairbanks, dau. of Jonathan Fairbanks (son of George Fairbank and Mary Farrer) and Grace Smith, on 2 April 1644 in Church of Christ, Dedham when 23 years old (Mary was 22 years old). Mary Fairbanks b. on 3 Feb. 1621/2 in Halifax Parish, Yorkshire, England; bap. on 18 April 1622 in Halifax Parish when two months old; d. on 12 Feb. 1672/3 in Dedham, 51 years old; m. (2) Christopher Smith (–7 Nov. 1676 in Dedham) on 2 Aug. 1654 in Church of Christ when 32 years old; issue (surname Smith): John (19 Nov. 1655 in Dedham–7 Oct. 1722 in Needham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts).

Issue of Michael Metcalf and Mary Fairbanks:

20 i. son [4]Michael Metcalf b. on 21 Jan. 1644/5 in Dedham.

21 ii. dau. Mary Metcalf b. on 15 Aug. 1646 in Dedham.

22 iii. dau. Sarah Metcalf b. on 7 Dec. 1648 in Dedham.

23 iv. son Dea. Jonathan Metcalf b. on 21 Sep. 1650 in Dedham.

24 v. son Dea. Eleazer Metcalf b. on 2 March 1652/3 in Dedham.

Exposition on Michael Metcalf:

Michael Metcalf married Mary Fairbanks on 2 April 1644 in Dedham. He died there on 25 March 1654.[1, 2]

"Michael [son of Michael and Sarah], b. Aug. 29, 1620, m. Mary, dau. of John Fairbanks, senr. April 2, 1644, d. in Dedham, Dec. 24 [sic], 1654."[3]

"Michael Metcalf, son of Michael Metcalf and Sarah Elwyn, was born Aug. 29, 1620 in Norwich, Norfolk, England—died Dec. 24 [sic], 1654 at Dedham, Mass.—mar. Mary Fairbanks, daughter of Jonathan Fairbanks, Sr. and Grace Smith, on Apr. 2, 1644. Mary Fairbanks was born Feb. 3, 1622—at Sowerby, Halifax Parish, Yorkshire, Eng.—she died Mar. 26, 1654 [sic] (there is a possible error in this date [true] since I show her as having a second husband, Christopher Smith [true]. One of these facts is in error [true].)"[4]

See also Savage.[5]

Michael's birth and death are listed in Ricker, 8738.[6] Reference is made to Center Cemetery in Lebanon, Connecticut. Perhaps a cenotaph or monument was placed there. His death was noted as 24 December 1654 in Dedham. This reference to his death on 24 December 1654 was probably derived from "24th day, 12th month, 1653/4" which would be 24 March 1654. Further, Harris[7] notes (mistakenly placed under his father's entry): "Inventory of the Estate of Michael Metcalfe, Jun. made 31, 1, 1654. Power of Administration, granted, 26 April 1654, to Mary, his widow, 'in behalf of her selfe and fiue children.'"

He had five children, all born in Dedham.[8, 9]

Exposition on Mary Fairbanks:

Lawson said:[1]

> Mary - bap. Feb 3, 1622, England; d. Mar. 10 or Apr. 4 or Jun. 4, 1684. Married first Apr. 2, 1644, Michael METCALF (d. Jan. 1654), and second, in Jun. 1654, Christopher SMITH.

Savage[2] also places Christopher Smith as the second husband of Mary (Fairbanks) Metcalf.

Her birth date seems to have been in February 1621/22,[3] so it is assumed she was born on 3 February 1621/2 as given by Torrey, and baptized on 18 April 1622 as given in other records.[4]

Torrey[5] lists her marriage to Christopher Smith on 2 August 1654.

Her death date was possibly in 1676 or 1684 in Dedham, but that is in contention.[6, 7, 8] A Mary Metcalf is recorded dying on 12 February 1672/3 in Dedham[9] and that date is assumed herein.

Exposition on John Metcalf:

John Metcalf married Mary Chickering on 23 March 1647 in Dedham.[1]

"John [son of Michael and Sarah], b. Sep. 5, 1622, m. Mary, dau. of Francis Chickering, March 22, 1647, d. Nov. 27, 1675."[2]

"Medcalfe, Mary, wid. John, Mar. 15, 1697–8."[3]

"John Metcalf, son of Michael Metcalf and Sarah Elwyn, was born on Sept. 15 [sic], 1622 at Norwich, England—died Nov. 27, 1675 at Medfield, Mass. On Mar. 22 [sic], 1647 he wed Mary Chickering, dau. of Francis Chickering, Sr. She died Mar. 16 [sic], 1697/8 at Medfield, Mass. They had six children."[4]

See also Savage.[5] He moved to Medfield, Massachusetts by 1658. He had eight children.[6]

It is certain that John died nearly fifteen years later than 1675: "Medcalfe, John Sr., Oct. 8, 1690."[7] Although contradicting Luther Metcalf Harris and Clayton G. Metcalfe above, it is also supported by Daniel Wheeler who said:[8]

> John Metcalfe, son of Michael and Sara (Ellwin) Metcalfe, born at St. Benedicts, Norwich, England, Sept. 5 (or 15) 1622, married at Dedham, Mass. March 22, 1647 Mary Chickering. . . . John Metcalfe died at Medfield Oct. 8, 1690 and his wife Mary died March 15, 1697–8.
> History
> John Metcalfe came from England in the ship "Rose" with his father, when a lad of 15 [sic, 14].
> He was admitted to the church in 1643, made freeman in 1647 and lived in Dedham until 1652 when, with his wife and three children, he removed to Medfield.
> His father died in 1664 and by his will left to his son John "One ffeather bed & Bolster, my second Book of Martyrs, Mr. Perkins second Book, Luther on the gala, one silver spoons, one pair of sheets, one long chest in the upper chamber, one Diaper Broadcloth."

He was selectman in Medfield six years and Commissioner in 1682 [seven years after the earlier date of death].

A peculiar circumstance in the family was the marriage of his three sons to three sisters by the name of Bowers, two of these marriages taking place the same day in 1676. About 1680 the town of Medfield voted a bonus for the erection of a grist mill upon the Charles River and a dam and mill were built by several associates of whom John Metcalfe was the first. This mill was upon the Charles river at Rockville in the town of Millis and was the first mill upon that portion of the river. It was burned by an Indian prior to 1685, but rebuilt, and the Indian was prosecuted for his crime.

Isaac Wheeler, son-in-law of John Metcalfe, was afterward part owner of this property.

John Metcalfe died at Medfield Oct. 8, 1690.

Exposition on Mary Chickering:

Daniel Wheeler said:[1]

Mary Chickering wife of John Metcalf was the daughter of Francis and Ann (Fiske) Chickering and was born in England.

Her father Francis with his brothers Henry and Simeon were the sons of Stephen Chickering of Wicklewood, England, who died in 1576, and was descended from Thomas Chickering who lived in Wymondshire in the reign of Henry VIII (1509 to 1547). (Dedham Historical Record Vol 3 P 117).

Francis Chickering came to this country probably in 1637 with his wife Ann and their two daughters Ann and Mary, settling in Dedham.

He was made freeman in 1640 and was many times selectman as well as representative in 1643 and 1644. He was also Ensign of the Militia company.

He died at Dedham in Oct. 1658.

His wife Ann died Dec. 5, 1649.

There are problems with Wheeler's ancestry of Francis. If his father died in 1576, Francis would have been born by that year, and this would make him at least fifty years old when Mary was born, and in his seventies when his last child was born. Since this is unlikely, Francis' ancestry is not accepted. It is more likely Francis was born around 1600, about 24 years after Stephen is said to have died, and that Francis' wife Ann was born around 1605, having her last child when she was about 43 years old.

Susan Johanson notes that Torry says in his article "Francis Chickering of Dedham, Massachusetts," The American Genealogist, Vol. 17, 1940, 70-71, that Mary was not the daughter of Francis Chickering.

This contradicts Hanson's Dedham record. But it should be noted that (1) there appears to be about thirteen years between the approximate birth of Mary and the birth of the next child, Bethshua; (2) another daughter born in 1648 (less than two years before her mother's death) was also named Mary, not likely if the first Mary were still alive—which she was; and (3) the names Francis and Anne do not appear among the eight children of John and Mary, which is highly unusual.

As to the first point, there may have been four or five children born in England and left there as too young to travel overseas. As to the second point, the first Mary would have been about 21 years old when the second Mary was born, so naming the last child Mary also would not have been as significant as naming the next daughter Mary. There is no rebuttal to the third point.

Exposition on Elizabeth Metcalf:

Elizabeth Metcalf married Thomas Bancroft on 15 September 1648 in Dedham. He had first married Alice Bacon on 31 March 1647 in Dedham. Alice died on 29 March 1648 in Dedham.[1]

"1626 Elizabeth Medcalfe daughter of Michael 20 September."[2]

"Elizabeth [daughter of Michael and Sarah], b. Oct. 4, 1626 [this is her baptismal date], m. Thomas Bancroft, of Reading, Sep. 15, 1648."[3]

"Eliz. m. 15 Sept. 1648, Thomas Bancroft of Reading."[4]

"Elizabeth Metcalf—born [baptized] Oct. 4, 1626 in Eng.—mar. Thomas Bancroft of Reading, Mass. on Sept. 15, 1648—no further data."[5]

Torrey[6] lists the marriage of Thomas and his first wife Alice Bacon on 31 March 1647; Thomas' birth and death years (1622–1691); Alice's death in 1648, Thomas' second marriage to Elizabeth Metcalf on 15 September 1648; and Elizabeth's birth and death years (1626–1711).

Exposition on Lt. Thomas Bancroft:

"Bancroft, Tho[mas], Lt., Aug. 19, 1691."[1]

Thomas Bancroft was born about 1625 [1621/2] in England. His father died in 1627 in England and his stepmother [sic, mother] in 1639. He immigrated to Massachusetts probably in 1640. He became a townsman of Dedham, Massachusetts, in 1648 and a freeman of Reading, Massachusetts, in 1648. He married first Alice Bacon, daughter of Michael Bacon, on 31 March 1647. She died there on 29 March 1648. Thomas married second Elizabeth Metcalf, daughter of Michael Metcalf and Sarah Ellwyn, on 15 September 1648 in Dedham. She was baptized [born] on 20 September 1626 in Norwich, Norfolk, England. Thomas died at Lynn, Massachusetts, on 19 August 1691. On his gravestone he is referred to at Lt. Thomas Bancroft, aged 69 years. Elizabeth died on 11 May 1711 in Reading, 85 years of age [in her 85th year].[2]

A birth date of about 1625 is supported by a deposition on 15 June 1675 that he was aged 50 years. But a deposition in 1680 said he was aged about 58 years and his gravestone said he was aged 69 years at his death on 19 August 1691. An usubstantiated entry in the ancestral file places the date of birth on 10 February 1621/2, which is likely since it would make him 69 years, six months and nine days old at death.

11. [3]Martha Metcalf, dau. of [2]Michael Metcalf [no. 3] and Sarah Elwyn. Born in 1627/8 in St. Benedict Parish, Norwich, Norfolk, England. Baptized on 27 March 1628 in St. Benedict Parish. Died on 26 Dec. 1717 in Concord, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, 89 years old.

Married first William Bicknal say in 1647, probably in Charlestown, Suffolk County, Massachusetts when 19 years old. William Bicknal of Charlestown; d. on 16 Aug. 1659 in Charlestown.

41 x. son Ebenezer Stow b. on 28 June 1668 in Concord.

Exposition on Martha Metcalf:

Savage[1] said: " . . . Martha [Metcalf, born] 27 Mar. or Oct. 1628 . . . [Michael Metcalf's will dated 15 September 1664, three months before his death. mentions daughter] Martha hav. then a sec. or third h. . . . gr. ch. William Brignall, s. of d. Martha, wh. was a mem. of Roxbury ch. by her first h. . . . Martha m. Williiam Brignall; next, 2 Aug. 1654, Christopher Smith as the Geneal. Reg. VI, 173, says, tho. I doubt its correctness, for Christopher Smith in 1668 is nam. in his will by Jonathan Fairbanks as h. of his d. Mary; and third h. . . . Stow . . . "

The Genealogical Register reference noted above says:[2] "Martha [daughter of Michael and Sarah], b. March 27, 1628, m. 1st Wm. Brignall, 2d Christopher Smith [sic], Aug. 2, 1654, 3d _____ Stow."

Martha's birth date given above was later shown to be her baptismal date: "1628 Martha Medcalfe daughter of Michael 27 March."[3]

Christopher Smith did not marry Martha—he married Mary Fairbanks, the wife of Martha's brother Michael, on 2 August 1654, after Michael died.

In her father's will dated 15 September 1664, Martha is named as Martha Stowe and her eldest son is named as William Brignall, not of "lawful age."

Savage[4] said about Martha's first husband: "Brignall, William, Dedham, m. Martha, d. of Michael Metcalf, had William, d. soon after . . . ."

It appears that this William is the same as another William also noted by Savage:[5] "Bicknor, or Bickner, . . . William, Charlestown 1658, d. 16 August 1659, leav. wid. Martha, by wh. he had Benjamin, b. 14 Sept. 1658; and Martha, 28 Dec. 1658. Often this name is seen Bicknell, or Bignall, or even, I think, Buckner."

It also appears that Martha's second husband, Mr. Stowe, is the Nathaniel Stow mentioned by Savage:[6] "Stow, . . . Nathaniel, Concord, s. of John the first [mentioned earlier], b. in Eng., by w. Eliz. had John, b. 29 or 30 June 1657, both dates being in the rec. d. in a few mos.; Hannah, wh. d. 14 May 1658, perhaps few houds old; and Thankful, 4 Jan. 1660; beside Samuel, nam. in the will of his uncle the Rev. Samuel. His w. d. 8 June 1661, he was freem. 1690."

As shown below, it appears Nathaniel died in 1684, so the reference to being a freeman in 1690 would apply to Nathaniel, Jr., one of his sons by his second wife Martha. The reference to Samuel would be to another son by Martha.

Most of this is confirmed in the Charlestown genealogies for William Bicknal (the surname spelling preferred herein):[7]

"Bicknal, William. Brick-maker; allowed to burn lime 1655; m. Martha Metcalf, who m. (2) Nathaniel Stow, 1662. Issue.—i. Samuel. ii. John. iii. Sarah, m. Isaac Hill, 1679–80 [sic, Sarah (Wheat) Bicknal, John's widow, married Isaac Hill]. iv. . . . [probably William]. v. Joseph, b. Dec. 8, 1655. vi. Benjamin, Sept. 14, 1656; admin. to Ensign Thos. Bancroft of Lynn; Inventory, Jan. 28, , 1678–9 (Suffolk Probate). vii. Martha, 28 (10) 1658."

The Charlestown genealogies also provide information on Nathaniel Stow:[8]

"Stow . . . Nathaniel, son of John and bro. of Rev. Samuel; m. (1) Elizabeth . . . , who d. June 8, 1661, at Concord; (2) Martha Bickner, Aug. 20, 1662, at Concord. Issue.—Thankful, b. Jan. 4, 1660, at Concord; m. (1) Joshua Benjamin."

Concord vital records pertinent to Nathaniel, Elizabeth and Martha follow:

"Elisabeth wife of nathaniell stow. died; 8 June: 1661."[9]

"nathan stow and martha Bignell were maryed 20. agust. 1662."[10]

"Nathaniel Stow dyed, 30. 3. [16]84."[11]

"Martha Stow Relicks of Nathanill Stow her Late Husband Dyed Decemr the 26: 1717 [in her 90th yr. g. s.]"[12]

[after 30 November 1717] "next . . . next dyed mrs Stow aged above ninty."[13]

Savage[14] also provides information about Nathaniel's father, John:

"Stow, . . . John, Roxbury, came 1634, arr. says the ch. rec. 17 May, in one of those six sh. that came in, as Winth. tells, in the wk. of the Gen. Ct.'s meeting, brot. w. Wliz., and six ch. Thomas, Eliz., John, Nathaniel, Samuel, H. C. 1645, and Thankful; was freem. 3 Sept. foll. and his w. d. or was bur. 21 Aug. 1638; was rep. at two Courts in 1639, and d. 26 Oct. 1643, by Eliot's rec. descr. as 'an old Kentish man.' His d. Eliz. m. 4 Dec. 1639, Henry Archer; on the same day her br. Thomas m and Thankful m. John Pierpont. I suppose, aft. the d. of f. the residue of the fam. rem. to sev. towns, but princip. to Concord and Middletown."

Torrey[15] lists the marriage of Martha and William and the birth year for Martha (1628). Torrey also confuses Martha with Mary (Fairbanks) Metcalf but notes Martha married second Nathaniel Stow in 1662. Torrey later lists the marriage of Martha and Nathaniel on 20 August 1662, and the birth and death years of Nathaniel (1621–1684).

Married second Anne Chickering on 2 Dec. 1679 in Rehoboth, Bristol County, Massachusetts when 49 years old. Anne Chickering d. on 1 Jan. 1688/9 in Dedham; m. (1) Stephen Paine (1629–1678), son of Stephen Paine and Neele Adcocke, on 3 Nov. 1652 (Stephen was 22 or 23 years old).

Married third Mehitable Hand on 22 Jan. 1688/9 when 59 years old. Mehitable Hand of Dedham; d. on 2 Dec. 1724; m. (1) John Savel (1642–bef. 1689) on 20 Oct. 1668 (John was 25 or 26 years old); m. (3) Josiah Chapin (1633/4 in England–10 Sep. 1726 in Mendon, Worcester County, Massachusetts), son of Dea. Samuel Chapin (son of John Chapin and Phillipe Easton) and Cicely Penny (dau. of Henry Penny and Jane _____), on 22 June 1713 (Josiah was 79 years old).

Exposition on Dea. Thomas Metcalf:

Thomas Metcalf married Sarah Paige on 12 September 1656 in Dedham. He married Ann Paine on 2 December 1679. Deacon Thomas died in Dedham on 16 November 1702, age 73 according to his grave stone in the Old Village Cemetery (he was in his 73rd year). Ann may be the Anna, wife of Sgt. Thomas Metcalf, who died on 1 January 1688/9 in Dedham.[1]

"Medceiffe Tho and Anna Paine, Oct. [sic] 2, 1679."[2]

"Medselfe, Mr. Thomas, married to Mistris Ann Paine, 2 of December [1679]."[3]

"1629 Thomas Medcalf son of Michael and Sara 11 January [1629/30]."[4]

"Thomas [son of Michael and Sarah], b. Dec. 27, 1629, m. 1st Sarah Paige, Sep. 12, 1655 or 6, 2d Anne Paine, Dec. 2, 1679. He was Deac. at Dedham; d. Nov. 16, 1702."[5]

See also Savage[6] and NEHGR.[7]

"Thomas Metcalf, Deacon of Dedham, Mass., was born Dec. 27, 1629 at St. Edmonsbury, Eng. —died Nov. 16, 1702 at Dedham, Mass. He first married Sarah Paige, by whom he had eight children. He next married Anne Paine on Dec. 2, 1679. By his first marriage on Sept. 12, 1655 . . . "[8]

Thomas and Sarah had eight children, all born in Dedham.[9]

Charles William Metcalf said that Pat Wood shows he was Deacon of the Puritan Church at Dedham. An alternate date of birth is 27 December 1630.

Torrey[10] lists the marriage of Thomas and Sarah Paige [possibly Pidge] on 12 September 1656 and Thomas birth and death years (1629–1702). He also lists Thomas' second marriage to Ann (Chickering) Paine, widow of Stephen Paine, on 2 December 1679.

Also listed are Stephen Paine's birth and death years (1628–1678); Stephen's marriage to Ann/Anne Chickering; and Stephen's father (also named Stephen) and uncle (Jeremiah Norcross). It seems Jeremiah was the senior Stephen's second wife's brother, making Jeremiah the junior Stephen's step-uncle.

Torrey[11] also lists the probable identity of the senior Stephen's second wife—Anna Norcross—who married first Samuel Davis, probably on 30 November 1631. Samuel's death is listed as 1672.

The Supplement to Torrey[12] lists the first marriage of the senior Stephen to Neele Adcocke before 1629, his birth and death years (between 1602 and 1607–1679) and Neele's baptism and death years (1602/3–1660), which makes Neele the mother of the junior Stephen.

Torrey[13] also lists the third marriage of Thomas to Mehitable Hand of Braintree, widow of John Savil, on 22 January 1688/9 and that they resided in Braintree; and the third marriage of Mehitable to Josiah Chapin.

Torrey[14] also lists the marriage of Mehitable to John Saville on 20 October 1668 and John's birth in 1642.

Trancribed Dedham cemetery records[15] state that Dea. Thomas Metcalf, son of Michael Metcalf and Sarah Elwin, was born on 27 December 1630 [sic, 1629], married Sarah Page on 12 September 1655 and died on 16 November 1702, aged 73.

Exposition on Jane Metcalf:

"1633 Jane Metcalfe daughter of Michael and Sara 29 [sic] March."[1]

"1632 Jane Metcalfe daughter of Michaell and Susanna 29 March. [All this entry is crossed out with a pen in a contemporary handwriting.]."[2]

Jane Metcalf married Philip Walker in 1654 in Rehoboth, Massachusetts.[3] Jane's first two children were recorded (transcribed) as born in the middle of February 1655 and 1657. At the time the years would have been recorded Old Style, so now would be written February 1655/6 and 1657/8. Those births would indicate that Jane was married to Philip in late 1654 or, more likely, early 1655 (up to May) when she was 21 or 22 years old.

"Jane [daughter of Michael and Sarah], b. March 24, 1632, m. Samuel Walker, of Rehoboth."[4]

With respect to the statement above that Jane Metcalf married "Samuel" Walker, the Walker Memorial says:[5]

> In the Metcalf Genealogy, contributed by Dr. Luther M. Harris, of Jamaica Plain, to the Genealogical Register, 1852, 172 pp., there is an abstract of the will of Michael Metcalf, of Dedham, dated 15: 9, 1664. In it, he made this bequest: "To my daughter, Joane Walker, 40s." There were other chil., sons and daus. Joane was the 10th child, b. March 24, 1632, and m., the Genealogy states, Samuel (?) Walker, of > Rehoboth. The will, however, does not give Mr. W.'s christian name. There is no Samuel, of so early a date, in any Old Colony Record, either town or county, and every Walker (except one since 1800,) who is mentioned in the Records of Rehoboth, Seekonk and Attleboro' (parts of the old township of Rehoboth,) and also in Bristol Co. Rec., has a place in the Genealogy of Philip Walker and his descendants. There is strong circumstantial proof, that there was no Samuel Walker in R. so early.

> May not the compiler of the Metcalf Genealogy have mistaken Samuel for Philip? Philip's wife's name was Jane. The dates also justify this theory. Besides, Philip had a son Michael. May not his name have been derived from the grandfather Michael? This is the only instance in which the name occurs among nearly 1900 Walkers, descendants from Philip, and as he had a son Samuel, it is probable, that tradition has confounded the names, and led the compiler of the Metcalf Genealogy into error.
> With no other proof of the existence of a Samuel Walker in Rehoboth, at this period, exept the Metcalf Genealogy, it is very much less probable, that "he died and left no sign," and no descendant, that that there was no such Samuel Walker.

Was Jane's first child Samuel named after Philip's father who no doubt died in England? The second child Sarah was likely named after Jane's mother, Sarah Elwyn.

"Walker, Jane, and John Polley, June 2, 1684."[6]

"Polley, Jane, wid. John, Oct. 24, 1701."[7]

"Joanne (Jane) Metcalf, dau. of Michael Metcalf and Sarah Elwyn, was born Mar. 24, 1632/3 in England—died 1703 [sic]—mar. Philip Walker—born Eng.—died Aug. 21, 1679—bur. at Seekonk [sic, part of Rehoboth], Mass. They were married ca 1654 in Mass. and their ten children were . . . "[8]

Torrey[9] lists the marriage of Jane Metcalf (or possibly Jane Butterworth) to Philip Walker; Philip's death year (1679); Jane's birth and death years (1632–1701); Jane's second marriage to John Polley on 2 June 1684 as his fourth wife; John's birth and death years (1618–1689); John's first marrriage to Susanna Bacon who was buried on 30 April 1664; John's second marriage to Mary Ives who was born in 1641 and died in 1666; and John's third marriage to Hannah Cowdrey on 18 September 1667 (Hannah died on 8 June 1684 [sic, this date is six days after John's marriage to Jane]).

Exposition on Dea. Philip Walker:

Philip's life, to the extent known, is described in the Walker Memorial.[1]

"Walker, Dea. Philip, buried Aug. 21, 1679."[2]

"Walker, Deacon Philip, [buried] the 21st of August [1679]."[3]

Philip was in the list of freeman in Rehoboth according to the 1658 town record.[4]

"June 22, 1658 lots were drawn for the meadows that lie on the north side of the town, in order as followeth, according to person and estate: . . . 32. Philip Walker . . . "[5]

Some of the information is from Charles William Metcalf:

Jane was John Polley's fourth wife. Michael J. Polley, who has corresponded with me descends from John Polley and Polley's first wife, Hannah Cowdrey.

This is the first of three marriages betwen Metcalfs and Polleys. The second was 28 Jan 1823 when Mehitable Metcalf married Jonathan Polley. The third was 23 Jan 1838 when Calvin Metcalf married Mary Stowe Manning. All three Metcalfs were related to each other. All three Polleys were related to each other, too.

iii. son Jonathan Hoyt b. on 6 April 1688; m. Mary Field (23 July 1690–), dau. of Samuel Field (son of Zachariah Field and Mary _____) and Sarah Gilbert (dau. of Thomas Gilbert), on 26 June 1712 when 24 years old (Mary was 21 years old).

Exposition on Mary Wilson:

Mary Wilson, daughter of Michael and Mary Wilson, was born on 7 November 1652 in Dedham. She was baptized there on 21 November of that year.[1]

"1652 . . . Mary, the Daughter of Henry & Mary Wilson, was borne the 7 of ye 9 mo."[2]

"Wilson, Mary, ch. Henry and Mary, ____, 1650, in Dedham. Private record."[3]

"Wilson, Mary, ch. Henry and Mary, and D. Hoit, ____. Private record."[4]

Torrey[5] lists the marriage of Mary to David Hoyt perhaps about 1676/7 (with their first child born in 1684), and David's death year as 1704. He also lists David's first marriage to Sarah Wells (who was born in 1655 and died perhaps in 1676) on 3 April 1673; and David's third marriage to Abigail Cooke, widow of Joshua Cooke, before 1691. Abigail survived David and married third Nathaniel Royce. David's residence is listed as Hadley following each marriage.

Exposition on Dea. David Hoyt:

"Hoyt, David, deacon, s. Nicholas, b. in Windsor, Ct., April 22, 1651, rem. to Hat. and thence to Deerfield. He together with his wife and children, Jonathan, Sarah, Ebenezer, and Abigail, was taken captive in the sack of Deerfield, Feb. 29, 1704, and carried away towards Canada, and perished of hunger near the lower Cohoes. He m. (1) April 3, 1673, Sarah, dau. of Thomas Wells, who d. before Sept. 1676; (2) Mary; (3) Abigail, wid. of Joshua Pomeroy and dau. of Nathaniel Cook of Windsor. She m. (3) Dea. Nathaniel Rice of Wallingford, Ct. Children—Samuel, b. June 12, 1674; David; Mary, m. April 4, 1707, Judah Wright; Sarah, b. May 6, 1686, m. — Nircs; Jonathan, b. April 6, 1888; Benjamin, b. Sept. 15, 1692, rem. to Wallingford, Ct.; Ebenezer, b. Aug. 21, 1695, remained among the Indians; Abigail, b. May 1, 1702, killed on the way to Canada, March, 1704."[1]

Of these children, Samuel must have been Sarah's son; David would also seem to have been Sarah's son (she may have died giving birth to him); Mary, Sarah and Jonathan would have been Mary's children; and Benjamin, Ebenezer and Abigail would have been Abigail's children.

Exposition on Capt. John Ware:

"1646 . . . John, the Son of Robert & Margery Wares, was borne the 6 of the 8 mo."[1]

"Ware, John, Capt. (Sr., dup.), and Dorothy Wood of Sherborn, Dec. 21, 1709. In Sherborn."[2]

"John, Capt., Apr. 7, 1718, in his 73d y."[3] He was in his 72nd year.

"Ware, John, Capt., Apr. 7, 1718, in his 73d y."[4]

"John, Oct. 6, bapt. 11, 1646; d. April 7, 1718, Wrentham."[5]

Ware said:[6]

> John Ware, born in Dedham, Oct. 6, 1646; died in Wrentham, April 7, 1718, in his 73d [sic, 72d] year. One of the settlers, 1671, of Wollomonopoag, incorporated as Wrentham 1673.[7] In March, 1675–6, the town was deserted by the settlers, who took refuge from the Indians in Dedham and elsewhere, and did not return till 1680. "1676—March Ye 30th Ye Inhabitance ware drawn of by rason of ye Endien Worre." "1680—August Ye 21st. The Revd Mr Man returned to Wrentham again and divers Inhabnts." (John, Nathaniel and Robert Ware among the number.) He is said to have built upon the "Bean Place"[8] as early as 1668. He was one of the first selectmen of Wrentham, 1686. Lieutenant and captain of the first military company.
> John Ware's commission as Lieut. of the Foot Company of Militia in the town of Wrentham, signed by Gov. Stoughton, Aug. 5, 1696, is still extant. He seems to have served as lieutenant from 1689 to 1704, and as captain till 1715. The journal of the company was kept in a small book, six by four inches, written in a crabbed, almost indecipherable hand, and was filled with notices of musters, with the names and amount of fines of the absent and "defective"; the names of those "presst for Canada" or elsewhere, including those who "ran away," and the precautions taken against the Indians. At the end of the book are the following lines:—
> He that is wise will Learn to prise > an art that is most skillfull > but as for fools theyel Spoyl all Town > and Live not wise but willfull.
> John Ware headed a band of men in an attack against the Indians at Indian Rock during King Philip's war. —History of Norfolk County, p. 632. Indian Rock is near Jordan St. in the eastern part of Franklin.
> John married first in Dedham, Dec. 10, 1668, Mary, daughter of Michael Metcalf, Jr., and Mary Fairbanks (born Aug. 15, 1646, died in Dedham, March 22, 1676–7).
> John married second, March 24, 1678–9, Joanna, daughter of John and Joanna Gay, of Dedham, and widow of Nathaniel Whiting, Jr. (born March 23, 1644–5, died at Wrentham, Oct. 26, 1708).

John married third, Dec. 21, 1709, Dorothy, widow of Eleazer (Nicholas) Wood, of Sherborn (who had died May 20, 1704), and mother of Hannah Wood, wife of John's son Joseph. "Dorothy, widow of Capt. John Ware," died in Sherborn, December 10, 1728.

Exposition on Sarah Metcalf:

Sarah Metcalf, daughter of Michael and Mary Metcalf, was born on 7 December 1748 in Dedham. She married Robert Ware on 4 June 1677 in Dedham.[1]

"Ware, Sarah, w. of Rober[t] Sr., Apr. 13, 17__ (1717, T. C.)."[2]

"1648 . . . Sary, the Daughter of Michaell & Mary Medcalfe, was borne the 7 of the 10 mo."[3]

"Sarah [daughter of Michael and Mary], b. Dec. 7, 1648, m. Robert Ware of Wrentham, June 4, 1677."[4]

Torrey[5] lists the marriage of Sarah and Robert Ware on 4 June 1677 (as his first wife); Sarah's birth and death years (1648–1718 [sic]); and Robert's birth and death years (1653–1724).

Exposition on Robert Ware:

"1653 . . . Robert, the Son of Robert & Margarett Ware, was borne the 1 of the 6 mo."[1]

Robert Ware married Sarah Metcalf on 4 June 1677 in Dedham.[2]

"Ware, Robert and Elizabeth Holdbrook (Elizabeth Holbrook of Mendon, dup.), Feb. 26, 1719–20. (In Mendon, dup.)"[3]

"Ware, Robert Sr., Sept. 16, 1724, in his 72d y."[4]

"Robert, Aug. 1, 1653; d. Sept. 16, 1724, Wrentham."[5]

Ware also wrote:[6]

> Robert, born in Dedham, August 1 or 6 [Dea. Mann's Bible record], 1653; settled in Wrentham; died there, Sept. 16, 1724, in his 72d year. He or his son Robert was "impressed by virtue of a warrant from ye Major" in Dedham to serve in King Philip's war. "Taken at Dedham the 9th Day of Xber, 1675, for Capt. Samuell Mossely's Company; Saml Colburne, John Day, Robt Weare, Abra Hartway, Henry Ellitroop." There has been some question whether this Robert Ware was the father or the son, but the age of the first two recruits was about the same as that of the younger Robert; Colburne and Day being about twenty, and Robert Ware twenty-two. Married first in Dedham, June 4, 1677, Sarah, daughter of Michael Metcalf, Jr., and Mary Fairbanks (born in Dedham, Dec. 7, 1648, died in Wrentham, April 13, 1718 [sic]). Robert married second, Feb. 26, 1719–20, Elizabeth Holbrook, of Mendon (died in Wrentham, July 28, 1723).

A soldier in the Wrentham company about 1689; deputy in 1703. He was on the committee about the Meeting House, 1669. In 1671 he agreed with others to settle Wollomonopoag. In 1702 his tax was 12-10. He was one of the executors of the will of his brother-in-law, Rev. Samuel Man, in 1718.

He died there on 23 May 1727, 77 years old according to his grave stone in the Old Village Cemetery. Hannah, noted as the widow of Dea. Jonathan Metcalf, died on 23 December 1731 in Dedham.[1]

"1650 . . . Jonathan, the Son of Michaell & Mary Metcalfe, was borne the 21 of the 7 mo."[2]

"Jonathan [son of Michael and Mary], b. Sep. 21, 1650, m. Hannah, dau. of John Kenric, April 10, 1674, d. May 27, 1727. She d. Dec. 23, 1731."[3]

Savage said:[4]

> Jonathan, Dedham, s. of the sec. Michael, m. 10 Apr. 1674, Hannah, d. of John Kenrick, had Jonathan, b. 16 [sic] Mar. 1675; John, 20 Mar. 1678; Ebenezer, 14 Feb. 1680; Joseph, 2 or 11 Apr. 1682, H. C. 1703, min. of Falmouth; Timothy, 18 Nov. 1684, d. at 11 yrs.; Eleazer, 14 Feb. 1687; Hannah, 10 Apr. [sic] 1689; Nathaniel, Apr. 1691; Mehitable; and Mary; was freem. 1683 or 4, his name being ins. ea. yr. and he d. 27 May 1727, and his wid. d. 23 Dec. 1731.

Clayton Metcalf said:[5]

> Jonathan Metcalf, son of Michael Metcalf and Mary Fairbanks, was born Sept. 10 [sic], 1650 at Dedham, Mass.—died May 27 [sic], 1727. On April 10, 1674 he married Hannah Kenric, dau. of John Kenric. Hannah died Dec. 23, 1731 and was probably buried also at Dedham, Mass. . . . Deacon Jonathan Metcalf and Hannah Kenric had ten children, seven sons and three daughters.

Jonathan had ten children, all but Mehitable known to have been born in Dedham.[6]

Torrey[7] lists the marriage of Jonathan and Hannah Kendrick/Kenrick on 10 April 1674; Jonathan's birth and death years (1650–1727) and Hannah's death in 1731.

Trancribed Dedham cemetery records[8] state that Dea. Jonathan Metcalf was born on 21 September 1650 and died on 23 May 1727 in his 77th years.

Jonathan's birth on 21 September 1650 in Dedham, death on 27 May 1727 and burial in Center Cemetery in Lebanon, Connecticut, is listed in Ricker, 8737.[9] This seems to be the source of the 27 May death date. Jonathan's son Jonathan or Ebenezer may have placed a cenotaph for his father in Center Cemetery.

Exposition on Dea. Eleazer Metcalf:

Eleazer Metcalf, son of Michael and Mary Metcalf, was born on 2 March 1652/3 in Dedham, and was baptized there on 6 March 1652/3.[1]

"1653 . . . Eliazer, the Son of Michaell & Mary Metcalfe, was borne the 2 of the 1 mo."[2]

"Eleazar sone of br: michaell Mettcalfe jun. was baptised 6d 1m 1652 by old account."[3]

"Medcalf, Eliazer and Meletiah Fisher, Apr. 9, 1684."[4, 5]

"Metcalf, _____, Dea., Sept. 13, 1704. Wrentham Centre Cemetery."[6]

"Medcalf, Eliezer, May 14, 1704."[7]

"Eleazer [son of Michael and Mary], b. March 20 [sic], 1653; was Deac. at Wrentham, m. April 9, 1684."[8]

Eleazar had nine children, all born at Wrentham.[9]

Savage said:[10]

Exposition on Meletiah Fisher:

Meletiah Fisher, daughter of Samuel and Meletiah, was born on 1 May 1667 in Dedham. She was baptized there on 5 May of that year.[1]

"Melletia, the Daughter of Sam. & Melatia Fisher, borne 1st May, 1667."[2]

"Metcalf, Meletiah, wid. of _____, Sept. 23, 1719."[3] It is not certain that this is the correct Meletiah, although it seems she is—no other Meletiah Metcalf appears dying in the Wrentham records. Clayton Metcalf gives the same birth date but a different death data: "Meletiah Fisher, dau. of Samuel Fisher and Meletiah Snow . . . was born May 1, 1667—died Dec. 23, 1742."[4]

"Meletiah, b. May 1, 1667; m. Eleazer Metcalf, April 9, 1684."[5]

Adams, "A Genealogical History of Henry Adams of Braintree, Mass., and His Descendants, also John Adams of Cambridge, Mass., 1632-1897" (Rutland, Vt., 1898), p. 312, says that this Joseph Metcalf married, as his second wife, Hannah (Adams) Fisher, daughter of Peter and Rachel (_____) Adams and widow of John Fisher. Hannah was born in Medfield on 16 Jan 1655/56 [Medfield VR, 10] and married Fisher there on 6 Mar 1673/74 [Medfield VR, 111]; Fisher died there on 15 Oct 1627 [Medfield VR, 211]. Medfield VR, 223, shows a Joseph Metcalf dying in Medfield on 18 Dec 1741 and a Hannah Metcalf dying there on 1 Nov 1746. Adams also says that Joseph's first wife, Sarah Bowers, died in 1727.

Exposition on Isaac Wheeler:

"Wheelor, Isaac, h. Experience, Feb. 8, 1730–1."[1]

"Isaac, born at Dedham or Lancaster in 1661, married in 1682 or 1683, Experience Metcalf of Medfield."[2]

Daniel Wheeler also said:[3]

> Isaac Wheeler, son of Richard and Sarah (Prescott) Wheeler, born at Lancaster or Dedham in 1661 married about 1682 or 1683 Experience, daughter of John and Mary (Chickering) Metcalfe of Medfield, Mass. She was born at Medfield, Oct. 16, 1661. . . .

Isaac Wheeler died at Medfield Feb. 8, 1730–1 and his wife Experience died Feb. 18, 1730–1. . . .

Isaac Wheeler was about 15 years of age at the time of his father's death and the destruction of Lancaster.

The town was temporarily abandoned and the widow of Richard Wheeler went first to Concord with the survivors of the Massacre and later settled with her children at Dedham. Young Isaac returned to Lancaster perhaps with his grandfather, John Prescott, in 1679.

He married, probably in 1682 or 1683 Experience Metcalfe of Medfield and their first three children were born in Lancaster (see Lancaster Records) and perhaps two or three others. It may be proper to state here that Abraham, Zebediah and Samuel Wheeler, brothers of Isaac, and his sister[s] Mary and Sarah, also returned to Lancaster. Abraham remained until killed by the Indians in 1695, Zebediah settled later in Stowe and Samuel remained until his death in 1691. There is some evidence of another brother, Daniel, who was also in Lancaster, so that it is reasonably certain that all of Richard Wheeler's children then living returned to Lancaster with the other settlers, and as late as 1688, the list of those persons subscribing to or assessed for the fund to build the parsonage at Lancaster, contains the names of the four brothers, Abraham, Isaac, Zebediah and Samuel Wheeler.

. . . [Isaac's] name appears in a list of the "Settlement of Garrison at Lancaster March 18, 1691" as a member of the Western Reg't. of Middlesex County. (N. E. Hist. & Gen. Register, Vol. 43, page 371.)

His brother Abraham was also a member of the same regiment and was slain by Indians one Sabbath morning in Nov. 1695 while going between the fort and his house. The residence of both Abraham and Isaac was probably near the northwest corner of High and Allen streets in Clinton, the sewage pumping station being located on their farm. Three old cellar holes marking the probable location of their buildings have been visible here until within a few years [of 1924]. At sometime between 1692 and 1697 Isaac removed from Lancaster to Medfield, perhaps at the time that he and his brother Abraham sold their portion of their father Richard's lands to Josiah Whitcomb previous to Abraham's death as above noted [Nov. 1695]. It is evident that this removal was previous to Nov. 25, 1697, as upon that date Judge Stoughton of the Probate Court for the County of Suffolk appointed "Isaac Wheeler of Medfield in Sd County, Housewright" to be guardian of the five children of Michael Metcalfe deceased, these children being the nephews and nieces of his wife, Experience (Metcalfe). (Suffolk Probate Records B11, P373-374). . . .

Isaac was by trade a carpenter or housewright but was also interested in a grist-mill at Rockville on the Charles River with his brother-in-law Joseph Metcalf and Benjamin and Edward Clark, each owning one fourth of the property. This was the oldest mill in that part of the province, it having been built by John Metcalfe and his associates to whom the town of Medfield voted a bonus for this purpose in 1680. . . .

Isaac Wheeler was one of the selectmen of Medfield in 1713, the year in which the town of Medway was set off from Medfield.

. . . Isaac Wheeler was one of the first proprietors of Worcester. Upon resettlement of that place in 1713 the committee of the General Court for Worcdester voted to Isaac Wheeler of Medfield 40 acres of land in Worcestor upon condition that he move to that place and build a house. The offer was accepted and Isaac moved to Worcestor in 1714 . . . .

Isaac Wheeler returned to Medfield sometime previous to 1722 . . . .

After his return from Worcester and until his death in 1731 he resided upon his Medfield estate which he had retained during his residence in Worcester. In his will dated Dec. 1, 1725 he left to his son Richard "all lands and Housing already deeded him in Worcester";—to his son Isaac "all my Housing and lands lying in the Township of Medfield";—to his son Abraham "all land and rights of lands remaining to me in Worcester"; and to his daughters Mary Boyden and Experience Clark £5. each. (Suffolk Probate Records Vol 28 page 452). The person who wrote this will spelled the name Wheelar and in the record to which reference is made above the copy of the signature is also Wheelar but the original will, also on file in the same office, bears the autograph of Isaac Wheeler.

Both Isaac and his wife, Experience, were members of the First Church in Medfield.

The exact location of their burial in Medfield is unknown.

Albert Wheeler said:[4]

Isaac Wheeler, son of Richard. Born 1661. Died Feb. 8, 1730–1. Married Experience Metcalf, who died Feb. 18, 1730–1, dau. of John Metcalf and Mary (Chickering) Metcalf. He was a carpenter at Medfield, Mass.

Albert Wheeler also gives Isaac's will:[5]

Savage[4] also gives her date of birth as 13 October 1664.

"Hannah, born at Medfield Oct. 13, 1664, married May 3 [sic], 1683 Elisha Bullen, died at Medfield Dec. 20, 1719."[5]

Jeanne (Whitney) Muse refers to William S. Tilden, History of Town of Medfield, Mass, 1650-1886 (Boston: 1887), for Hannah's birth, marriage (to Elisha Bullin) and death.

"Hannah Metcalf—born Oct. 13, 1664—died Nov. 11, 1734 [sic]—mar. Elisha Bullin. This data is inaccurate or Elisha Bullin married two of these sisters???"[6] She did marry Elisha Bullin (and he did not marry anyone else) and the death date of 1734 is inaccurate.

Exposition on Lt. Thomas Bancroft:

Thomas Bancroft, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Bancroft, was born on 14 September 1649 in Dedham. He was baptized there 28 December 1651.[1]

"1649 . . . Thomas, the Son of Thomas & Elizabeth Bancroft, was borne the 14 of the 7 mo."[2]

"Bancroft, Thomas and Sarah Pooll, Apr. 10, 1673."[3]

"Bancroft, Thomas, Dea., June 12, 1718, a 69 y. Grave record, Old Cemetery, formerly Town Burying Ground."[4] He was in his 69th year.

"Bancroft, Thomas, Dea., June 12, 1718."[5]

Thomas was born on 14 September 1649 at Dedham and baptized on 28 October [sic, December] 1651. He married Sarah Poole on 10 April 1673 in Reading. Sarah, daughter of Capt. Jonathan Poole and Judith Jacobs, was born on 11 July 1656 in Reading. Thomas was an officer in King Philip's War and was appointed Lieutenant in a Middlesex regiment on 30 August 1689. Thomas died on 12 July [sic, June] 1718 and was buried in the burial ground around the First Congregational Church in Wakefield. Sarah died on 20 May 1723 in Reading and was buried beside Thomas.[6]

Torrey[7] lists the marriage of Thomas and Sarah on 10 April 1673 and the birth and death years for Thomas (1649–1718) and for Sarah (1656–1723).

Allen in his corrections[8] notes Thomas died in June.

Exposition on Elizabeth Bancroft:

"Bancroft, Elizebeth, d. of Thomas, Dec. 7, 1653."[1]

"Bancroft, Elizebeth and Joseph Brown, May 26, 1674."[2]

"Brown, Elizabeth, Dec. 31, 1732."[3]

Elizabeth was born on 7 December 1653 in Dedham. She married Joseph Browne, son of Nicholas and Elizabeth Browne, on 26 May 1674. Joseph was born on 10 December 1647 and died on 16 October 1723 [sic].[4]

Torrey[5] lists the marriage of Elizabeth and Joseph on 26 May 1674, the birth and death years for Joseph (1647–1708) and for Sarah (1653–after 1708).

Allen in his corrections[6] notes Joseph's will was dated 9 July 1708 and proven 7 September 1708, agreeing with Torrey.

v. son John Woodward b. on 16 Sep. 1696 in Reading.

Exposition on Sarah Bancroft:

"Bancroft, Sarah, d. of Thomas, Apr. 1, 1665."[1]

"Bancroft, Sarah and John Woodward, July 7, 1686. Middlesex court record."[2]

"Woodard, Sarah, w. of John, Feb. 23, 1697."[3]

Sarah was born on 1 April 1665 in Reading. She married John Woodward on 7 July 1686 as his second [sic, first] wife. He was born in 1649, son of George and Mary Woodward [sic].[4] See Torrey below. The confusion is with another John Woodward (1649–1732) who married first Rebecca Robbins (–1696) about 1672 and second Sarah Prentice (–1723), widow of John Smith, on 16 March 1688/9.

Torrey[5] lists the marriage of Sarah and John Woodard on 7 July 1686 and the birth and death years for Sarah (1665–1697), his first wife. He also lists John's second marriage to Margaret Hutchinson, widow of Samuel Leamon/Leman, on 29 January 1699/1700 their residence in Reading and John's death in 1744.

Torrey[6] also lists the first marriage of Margaret Hutchinson to Samuel Leamon on 20 February 1689/90, Samuels' birth in 1667 and Margaret's birth in 1670.

119 vi. dau. Patience Bancroft b. on 14 July 1708 in Lynn.

120 vii. son Lt. Timothy Bancroft b. on 14 Dec. 1710 in Lynn.

viii. dau. Lois Bancroft b. on 17 June 1713 in Lynn; bap. on 21 June 1713 in Wakefield when four days old; d. in 1723, nine or ten years old.

Exposition on Capt. Ebenezer Bancroft:

"Bancroft, Ebinazur, s. Thomas, Apr. 26, 1667."[1]

"Bancraft, Ebenezer, and Abygail Eaton, May 19, 1692."[2]

"Bancroft, Ebenezer, Capt., June 6, 1717, a. abt. 50 y. Grave record, Old Cemetery, formerly Town Burying Ground."[3]

Ebenezer was born on 26 April 1667 in Reading. He married Abigail Eaton, daughter of John Eaton and Elizabeth Kendall, on 19 May 1692. She died on 8 April 1757 [sic, 24 March 1716 according to her gravestone]. He died on 6 June 1717.[4]

Torrey[5] lists the marriage of Ebenezer and Abigail Eaton on 19 May 1692, Ebenezer's birth and death years (1667–1717) and Abigail's death in 1758.

Exposition on Abigail Eaton:

"Eaton, Abigall, d. of John, Aug. 7, 1677."[1]

"Bancroft, Abigail, w. of Capt. Ebenezer, Mar. 24, 1716, a. abt. 40 y. Grave record, Old Cemetery."[2]

There has been some question as to whether Abigail was the daughter of John Eaton and Elizabeth Kendall. Upon reviewing the vital records of Reading, the following children of "Eaton, John" with no wife listed were extracted:

i. son Thomas Eaton b. on 12 March 1660/1 in Reading; d. on 12 Oct. 1661 in Reading, seven months old.

ii. dau. Elizabeth Eaton b. on 8 Dec. 1662 in Reading; d. on 12 March 1704/5 in Lynn, Essex County, Massachusetts, 42 years old.

iii. dau. Rebecca Eaton b. on 1 March 1664/5 in Reading.

iv. son John Eaton b. on 28 March 1666 in Reading.

v. dau. Martha Eaton b. on 21 Feb. 1668/9 in Reading.

vi. son William Eaton b. on 1 Dec. 1670 in Reading.

vii. son Thomas Eaton b. on 25 April 1673 in Reading; d. on 14 Dec. 1674 in Reading, a year old.

viii. dau. Abigail Eaton b. on 7 Aug. 1677 in Reading; d. on 24 March 1716 in Wakefield, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, 38 years old.

ix. dau. Hepsabeth Eaton b. on 26 Oct. 1680 in Reading.

x. dau. Hannah Eaton b. on 12 June 1683 in Reading.

Elizabeth is known to have married Ebenezer's brother John. It is apparent that the birth order of these children, including Elizabeth and Abigail, is perfectly reasonable, and no other Abigail is listed that fits in this period in Reading.

As to Abigail's age at marriage of fourteen years, nine months and twelve days, it may be revealing that her gravestone in Wakefield was engraved "Died March 24, 1716, about ye 40th year of Her Age" (emphasis added), probably giving the politic impression she was married at about 16 years old. Also note that her first child was born four years after her marriage, on 9 November 1696, when she was nineteen years old.

ISSUE OF WILLIAM BICKNAL AND [3]MARTHA METCALF [NO. 11] ([2]MICHAEL METCALF [NO. 3], [1]REV. LEONARD METCALF [NO. 1])

38. [4]Samuel Bicknal, son of William Bicknal and [3]Martha Metcalf [no. 11]. Born say in 1648 in Charlestown, Suffolk County, Massachusetts. Died on 28 Aug. 1729 in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, 80 or 81 years old.

Married Hannah Bell on 2 Dec. 1669 in Charlestown when 20 or 21 years old. Hannah Bell d. after 28 Aug. 1729, probably in Charlestown.

Issue of Samuel Bicknal and Hannah Bell:

i. dau. [5]Hannah Bicknal b. on 12 Feb. 1670/1 in Charlestown; bap. on 19 March 1675/6 in Charlestown when five years old.

ii. son William Bicknal b. on 26 Sep. 1673 in Charlestown; bap. on 3 Oct. 1676 in Charlestown when three years old; d. on 13 Aug. 1680 in Boston, six years old.

iii. son Samuel Bicknal b. on 27 March 1677 in Charlestown; bap. on 1 April 1677 in Charlestown when five days old.

iv. dau. Sarah Bicknal bap. on 9 May 1680 in Charlestown.

Exposition on Samuel Bicknal:

The Charlestown genealogies note Samuel:[1]

"Bicknal, . . . Samuel. Son of William; Boston; Brick-layer; m. Hannah Bell 2 (10) 1669, who was adm. church, March 12, 1675; d. in B. Aug. 28, 1729, a. 76. Issue.—i. Hannah, b. Feb. 12, 1670–1; bapt. 19 (1) 1676. ii. William, Sept. 26, 1673; bapt. 3 (8) 1676; d. in Boston, Aug. 13, 1680, a. 7, g. s. Granary. iii. Samuel, 27 (1), bapt. 1 (2) 1677; Boston. iv. Sarah, bapt. 9 (3) 1680. . . . Widow Hannah . . . ." It appears that Samuel was at least 80 years old when he died.

Torrey[2] lists the marriage of Samuel and Hannah on 2 December 1669 and the death year for Samuel (1679). He lists Samuel's surname as Bicknel and Bickner.

39. [4]John Bicknal, son of William Bicknal and [3]Martha Metcalf [no. 11]. Born say in 1650 in Charlestown, Suffolk County, Massachusetts. Died on 4 Jan. 1678/9 in Charlestown, 28 or 29 years old.

Married Sarah Wheat on 27 May 1675, probably in Charlestown when 24 or 25 years old. Sarah Wheat m. (2) Isaac Hill (1641–) on 12 Jan. 1679/80 in Charlestown (Isaac was 38 or 39 years old).

Issue of John Bicknal and Sarah Wheat:

i. son [5]John Bicknal b. on 27 Feb. 1675/6 in Charlestown.

ii. son Joseph Bicknal b. on 24 Aug. 1677 in Charlestown.

Exposition on John Bicknal:

The Charlestown genealogies note John:[1]

"Bicknal, . . . John. Bro. of Samuel; mason; m. Sarah . . . , who m. (2) Isaac Hill; d. Jan. 4, 1678–9. Admin. to widow. Inventory £121, house and 1 1/2 acres Little Island, 1 acre out of neck. Issue.—i. John, b. 27 (12) 1675–7 [sic]. ii Joseph, 24 (6) 1677."

Torrey[2] lists the marriage of John and Sarah Wheet on 27 May 1675, the death year for John (1679) and Sarah's second marriage to Isaac Hill on 12 January 1679/80. He also lists Isaac's birth year of 1641 and his first marriage to Hannah Haward/Hayward/Haywood/Howard in June 1666.

130 iv. dau. Sarah Metcalf b. on 1 Dec. 1703 in Dedham.

Exposition on Thomas Metcalf:

Thomas Metcalfe, son of Thomas and Mary [sic] Metcalf, was born on 7 May 1671 in Dedham. He was baptized there on 21 May of that year. He married Sarah Avery there on 24 November 1696. Sarah, daughter of William and Mary Avery, was born there on 9 October 1675. Thomas, son of Deacon Metcalf, died there on 22 September 1704, 34 years old according to his grave stone in the Old Village Cemetery (he was in his 34th year). Sarah Metcalf married Joseph Wight on 6 April 1709 in Dedham. Sarah Wight, wife of Dea. Joseph Wight, died on 28 June 1748, 73 years old according to her grave stone in the Old Village Cemetery (she was in her 73rd year).

Dea. Joseph died on 14 July 1756 in Dedham, age 75 according to his grave stone in the Old Village Cemetery (he was in his 75th year).[1]

"Thomas [son of Thomas and Sarah], b. May 7, 1671, m. Sarah Avery, Nov. 24, 1696, d. Dec. 12 [sic], 1704. The widow m. Joseph Wight, April 6, 1709. She d. 1748."[2]

"Thomas Metcalf—born May 7, 1671—died Dec. 12 [sic], 1704—mar. Sarah Avery on Nov. 24, 1696. There were four children born to this marriage."[3]

Thomas and Sarah had four children, all born in Dedham.[4]

Torrey[5] lists the marriage of Thomas and Sarah Avery on 24 November 1696; Thomas birth and death years (1671–1704); Sarah's death year (1748); and Sarah's second marriage to Joseph Wight in 1709.

Trancribed Dedham cemetery records[6] state that Thomas Metcalf, son of Thomas and Mary [sic, Sarah (Pidge)] Metcalf, was born on 7 May 1671, married Sarah Avery on 24 November 1696 and died on 22 September 1704, in his 34th year.

Exposition on Mehitable Willmarth:

"Willmarth, Mehittabell, of John and Ruth, June 19, 1675."[1]

Another possibility: "Willmarth, Mehittabell, of Timothy and Mary, March 4, 1680–1."[2]

"Walker, Mehitable, wife of Ebenezer, Nov. 27, 1702."[3] This date must be in error, since daughter Mehitable is recorded as born on 18 December 1702. Mother Mehitable probably died on 27 December 1702, nine days after her daughter was born.

"Thomas [son of Michael and Elizabeth], b. Jan 3, 1679, m. Lydia, dau. of Nathaniel & Lydia Chickering. She was b. Dec. 1, 1678."[3]

They had four children.[4]

"Thomas Metcalf, son of Michael Metcalf of Dedham, was an early inhabitant of Needham, and lived where is now the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital. In the house which he built dwelt his son Michael, the mathematical prodigy, who was the donor in 1769 of the land on which the Brick School was placed. This Thomas Metcalf, later Lieut. Thomas, had been a fence viewer in Dedham in 1702. In 1727 he bought four acres of land near his own house and 'Lying in the place Called Chestnut trees' from his neighbor, Robert Fuller. Lieutenant Metcalf died August 4, 1743, aged sixty-four years, and was buried in the old graveyard. His daughter, Esther, married John Harris of Brookline on April 16, 1747, and consequently Ensign Michael Harris and Capt. Michael Harris, son and grandson of John and Esther, lived on the Metcalf farm. About 1844 Otis Sawyer, then owner, took down the old house, which was in fair condition, but small."[5]

Married Judith Rockwood, dau. of Benjamin Rockwood (son of Nicholas Rockwood and Joan _____) and Judith Ellis (dau. of Thomas Ellis and Mary Wight), on 15 Feb. 1709/10 in Wrentham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts when 25 years old (Judith was 28 years old). Judith Rockwood b. on 17 March 1681 in Wrentham; m. (1) John George (of Dorchester, Suffolk County, Massachusetts–21 Sep. 1704 in Wrentham) on 26 May 1703 in Wrentham when 22 years old; issue (surname George): Judith (14 April 1704 in Wrentham–1782).

Issue of Eleazer Metcalf and Judith Rockwood:

178 i. son [6]Eleazer Metcalf b. on 21 Nov. 1710 in Wrentham.

179 ii. dau. Abigail Metcalf b. on 18 Jan. 1712/3 in Wrentham.

180 iii. son Benjamin Metcalf b. on 3 May 1715 in Wrentham.

iv. son Jeremy Metcalf b. on 13 March 1718/9 in Wrentham; d. on 19 Sep. 1729 in Wrentham, ten years old.

Exposition on Eleazer Metcalf:

Eleazer Metcalf, son of Michael and Elizabeth, was born in 1684 or 1685.[1]

"Metcalf, Eleazer and Judith [widow of John] Georg[e], Feb. 15, 1709–10."[2]

"Eleazer [son of Michael and Elizabeth], b. Feb. 12, 1684–5. Children: Hannah, Deborah."[3]

They had four children born in Wrentham.[4]

Ebenezer's stepdaughter, Judith George, married his first cousin, Samuel Metcalf.

64. [5]Elizabeth Metcalf, dau. of [4]Michael Metcalf [no. 20] and Elizabeth Fuller. Born before 1694, probably in Dedham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts.

Married John Damon. John Damon of Dedham.

Issue of Elizabeth Metcalf and John Damon:

i. son [6]George Damon b. on 7 July 1736; d. in Dec. 1796, 60 years old.

Exposition on Elizabeth Metcalf:

"That the above Michael Metcalf [b. 1644/5] had a dau. Elizabeth, I am fully assured, although her name is not put down either in the record of Mr. Joseph Metcalf, or in that of Dr. Thayer. My reasons are—that Michael [b. 1674], having neither wife nor child, distributes his whole estate, by will, amongst his brothers, sisters, nephews and neices; also, mentions his sister Elizabeth before his other three sisters. Elizabeth m. John Daman of Dedham, and the receipt for her legacy is signed by them both. They had a son George, b. July 7, 1736, grad. H. U., 1756; was fourth minister of Tisbury, Martha's Vineyard; ord. 1760; resigned in 1779; removed to Woodstock, Vt.; d. Dec. 1796."[1]

ISSUE OF CAPT. JOHN WARE AND 4MARY METCALF [NO. 21] (3MICHAEL METCALF [NO. 7], 2MICHAEL METCALF [NO. 3], 1REV. LEONARD METCALF [NO. 1])

65. 5John Ware, son of Capt. John Ware and 4Mary Metcalf [no. 21]. Born on 17 June 1670 in Dedham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts. Died on 29 March 1751 in Wrentham, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, 80 years old. Buried in Wrentham Center Cemetery, Wrentham.

Married Mehitable Chaplen, dau. of William Chaplen, on 14 Jan. 1695/6 in Wrentham when 25 years old (Mehitable was 20 years old). Mehitable Chaplen b. on 22 Feb. 1674/5, probably in Dorchester, Suffolk County, Massachusetts; d. on 25 March 1750, 75 years old.

Issue of John Ware and Mehitable Chaplen:

181 i. son 6Dr. William Ware b. on 4 July 1697 in Wrentham.

182 ii. son John Ware b. on 7 May 1700 in Wrentham.

183 iii. son Moses Ware b. on 7 June 1702 in Wrentham.

184 iv. dau. Mary Ware b. on 4 Aug. 1705 in Wrentham.

v. dau. Barbara Ware b. on 9 April 1708 in Wrentham; stillborn.

vi. dau. Mehitable Ware b. on 6 Oct. 1710 in Wrentham; m. William May (abt. 1708 probably in Wrentham–) on 20 May 1736 in Wrentham when 25 years old (William was about 28 years old).

185 vii. dau. Rebeckah Ware b. in 1716/7 in Wrentham.

viii. son Richard Ware b. on 27 Oct. 1718 in Wrentham; d. on 7 Sep. 1719 in Wrentham, ten months old.

Exposition on John Ware:

John Ware, son of John and Mary Ware, was born on 17 June 1670 in Dedham.[1]

"Ware, John, in Dedham, June 17, 1670."[2]

"Ware, John and Mehethibel Chapen, Jan. 14, 1695–6."[3]

"Ware, John, Mar. 28, 1751, in his 91st y. Grave record, Wrentham Centre Cemetery."[4]

"John, June 17, 1670, in Dedham; d. March 29, 1751, in Wrentham."[5]

Ware also said:[6]

> John, born in Dedham, June 17, 1670; died "Mar ye 29th 1751 in the 81st year of his age." Buried at Wrentham Centre. Married Jan. 14, 1695–6, Mehitable "Chaplen." She was probably daughter of William Chaplen, of Dorchester, who had besides other children, Mehetabel, born Feb. 22, 1674–5. She died aged 75 years 1 month 3 days, on March 25, 1750.

Torry[7] lists the marriage of John and Mehitable Chapen/Chaplin on 14 January 1695/6; John's birth and death years (1670–1719 [sic]); Mehitable's birth and death years (1675–1750); and that Mehitable was of Dorchester.

Torrey[8] also lists a William Chaplin/Chapley of Dorchester/Swansea who died in 1697, whose unnamed wife died after 1705 and whose first child was possibly born in 1661. William was probably Mehitable's father, and her siblings probably include Ann (Chaplin) Gord, Barbara (Chaplin) Jones and Mary (Chaplin) Taylor.

Exposition on Dea. John Metcalf:

John Metcalf, son of Jonathan and Hannah Metcalf, was born on 20 March 1677/8 in Dedham. He married first Mehitable Savel on 29 April 1701 in Dedham. Noted as the wife of John Metcalf, she died on 30 March 1712. He married second Bethiah Savel on 12 February 1712/3 at Braintree. He married third Grace Williams on 29 October 1718 in Dedham. John (Esq.) died on 6 October 1749 in Dedham. His gravestone in the Old Village Cemetery gives his age as 72 years old at his death. Grace, noted as the wife of John Metcalf (Esq.), died on 11 November 1749 in Dedham.[1]

"John 'Esq.' [son of Jonathan and Hannah], b. March 20, 1678, had 3 wives; 10 sons and 8 daughters. He d. Oct. 6, 1749."[2]

He was a Lieutenant and a Deacon, and a tanner by trade.[3]

"John, m. Mehitable Savels of Braintree, April 29, 1701, had [six children]. By 2d wife, Bethiah Savels, cousin of his 1st wife, m. Feb. 12, 1713, had [three children]. By 3d wife, Grace Williams of Roxbury, m. Oct. 25, [sic] 1718 (she d. Nov. 11, 1749, aged 61) had [nine children]."[4]

235 viii. son Jabez Metcalf b. on 30 Nov. 1718 in Lebanon.

Exposition on Cornet Ebenezer Metcalf:

Ebenezer Metcalf, son of Jonathan and Hannah Metcalf, was born on 14 February 1679/80.[1]

"Metcalfe, Ebenezer m. Hannah Abell, Apr. 28, 1702."[2]

Ebenezer Metcalf died on November 15, 1755, in his 76th year.[3]

Ebenezer's marriage and death are listed in Ricker, 8735.[4]

"This Ebenezer Metcalf, b. 14 Feb., 1680, at Dedham, was the third son of Jonathan Metcalf and Hannah Kendric of Dedham. He m. 28 April, 1702, [at Norwich,] Hannah Abel of Norwich, probably born 15 Jan., 1678, eldest daughter of Joshua Abel and Mehitable Smith of Norwich. They settled at Norwich and removed to Lebanon [about 1711], where he d. 15 Nov., 1755, aged 75 years. She d. 17 June, 1756, aged 77 years."[5] The Abell genealogy contradicts Walworth's assertion that Hannah was the daughter of Joshua and Mehitable.

"Ebenezer [son of Jonathan and Hannah], b. Feb. 14, 1680, m. Margaret Ware, 1713 [sic]."[6] There is no evidence that Ebenezer ever married a Margaret Ware, and she does not appear in the Ware genealogy.[7]

Goodwin said:[8]

> Ebenezer, born February 14, 1680. . . . Ebenezer Metcalf, of Lebanon, Conn., was married to Hannah Abel. Mr. Ebenezer Metcalf died November 15, 1755, in his 76th year. His widow, Mrs. Hannah Metcalf, died ____.

Ebenezer and Hannah had seven children.[9]

"Ebenezer Metcalf, third son of Deacon Jonathan Metcalf and Hannah Kenric, was born Feb. 14, 1680—mar. (1st) Hannah Abel on Apr. 28, 1702, by whom he had one [sic] son. (They lived in Lebanon, Conn.) . . . In 1713 Ebenezer Metcalf married Margaret Ware."[10] There is no evidence for the second marriage.

Some of the information is from Roger Tansey:

A Modern History of Windham County, Connecticut Volume II By Allen B. Lincoln 1920:

Transcribed by Charles Hoadly, Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut, from May 1726 to May, 1735 (Press of Case, Lockwood & Brainard, Hartford, 1873); "This Assembly do establish and confirm Mr. Ebenezar Mettcalf to be Cornett of the Troop in the county of Windham, and order that he be commissioned accordingly."

A Cornet (normally spelled with one t) was a military rank bestowed upon a junior officer, one who carried the colors, comparable to that of Ensign.

ISSUE OF [4]ENS. JOHN BANCROFT [NO. 35] ([3]ELIZABETH METCALF [NO. 10], [2]MICHAEL METCALF [NO. 3], [1]REV. LEONARD METCALF [NO. 1]) AND ELIZABETH EATON

110. [5]Dea. John Bancroft, son of [4]Ens. John Bancroft [no. 35] and Elizabeth Eaton. Born on 25 Jan. 1682/3 in Lynn, Essex County, Massachusetts. Died on 25 Dec. 1768 in Lynn, 85 years old.

Married first Mary Clark, dau. of John Clark and Susannah Story, on 19 April 1704 in Reading, Middlesex County, Massachusetts when 21 years old (Mary was 19 years old). Mary Clark b. on 8 Feb. 1684/5; d. on 1 Oct. 1723 in Lynn, 38 years old.

Issue of Dea. John Bancroft and Mary Clark:

315 i. dau. [6]Mary Bancroft b. on 11 June 1706 in Lynn.

316 ii. son John Bancroft b. on 25 June 1708 in Lynn.

317 iii. dau. Elizabeth Bancroft b. on 28 May 1711 in Lynn.

318 iv. dau. Susannah Bancroft b. on 26 Oct. 1714 in Lynn.

v. son Timothy Bancroft b. on 25 Dec. 1717 in Lynn; bap. on 2 March 1717/8 in Wakefield, Middlesex County, Massachusetts when two months old.

319 vi. dau. Eunice Bancroft b. on 18 Feb. 1719/20 in Lynn.

vii. dau. Jane Bancroft b. on 8 July 1722 in Lynn; m. (int.) Josiah Holden (24 July 1721 in Worcester, Worcester County, Massachusetts–), son of James Holden and Hannah _____, on 19 Feb. 1743/4 in Lynn when 21 years old (Josiah was 22 years old).

Married second Mary Brington on 19 Dec. 1724 in Lynn when 41 years old (Mary was 42 years old). Mary Brington b. in 1681/2; d. on 25 July 1763 in Lynn, 81 years old; m. (1) Samuel Mansfield.

Issue of Dea. John Bancroft and Mary Brington:

320 viii. son [6]Dea. Nathaniel Bancroft b. on 22 Oct. 1725 in Lynn.

ix. dau. Hannah Bancroft b. on 28 Sep. 1728 in Lynn; d. on 26 July 1738 in Lynn, nine years old; bur. in Old Lynnfield Center Cemetery, Lynn.

Exposition on Dea. John Bancroft:

"Bancroft, John, s. John and Elizabeth, Jan. 26, 1682/3."[1]

"Bancroft, John, jr., and Mary Clark of Reading, at Reading, Apr. 19, 1704."[2]

"Bancroft, John (Jr., int.) of Lynn, and Mary Clark, Apr. 19, 1704. At Lynn."[3] Note that Reading says the marriage took place at Lynn and Lynn says Reading!

"Bancroft, John, jr., and wid. Mary Mansfield, Dec. 19, 1724."[4]

"Bancroft, John, Dea., 'suddenly,' Dec. 25, 1768, in his 86th y. Church record."[5]

John was born on 25 January 1682 in Lynn End (part of Lynn at the time, later Lynnfield). He married first Mary Clarke, daughter of Thomas Clarke and Mary Swaine of Reading [sic, see below], on 19 April 1704. She died on 1 October 1723, age 38. John married second Mary Brington, widow of Samuel Mansfield, on 19 December 1724. She died 23 or 25 July 1763, age 81. John died on 20 December 1768, age 86 [in his 86th year].[6]

It is very unlikely that Mary Clark was the daughter of Thomas Clarke and Mary Swaine because: (1) Thomas and Mary were married on 31 August 1658 in Reading[7] meaning Mary Swaine was born probably by 1640 and thus Mary Swaine would have been at least 44 or 45 years old when she had Mary Clark; (2) it would be very unusual for Thomas and Mary to have named such a late daughter with the mother's name rather than a first daughter; and (3) no daughter Mary is recorded in Reading or Lynn born to Thomas and Mary.

It is much more probable that Mary Clark was the daughter of John Clark and Susannah Story of Lynn who were married on 13 July 1681 in Lynn[8] and whose only child recorded was Mary Clark born on 8 February 1684[/5], making that Mary Clark in her 39th year at death. (John Clark appears to have died on 18 December 1685 in Lynn.[9]) Also, note that Mary Clark's third daughter was named Susannah.

He joined the expedition to Quebec, and was there at the taking of the city in 1759. On his return, when between Clarendon (then Socialboro',) and No. 4, New Hampshire, (now Charleston,) he froze his feet badly. Attracted by the appearance of the country on his way home, he travelled up the Otter Creek, as far as Clarendon. On the 1st of April, 1768, removed with his family to C., where he died. He early settled in Coventry, R. I., and built him a house, which was situated a little East of South, from the Summit Station, on Providence and Hartford R. R. All that now remains is the chimney, still standing, (1857,) the house having been taken down in 1853. He left also, other traces of his sojourn in C. South of his dwelling on the hill are two little graves, always said by oldest inhabitants to be graves of Walker children. They are still visible, and the present owner of the farm has lately enclosed the place for a grave yard. It is a tradition there, that Mr. W. one evening saw a strange light on the hill. Losing his 2 chil. soon after, he had them buried where he saw the singular light. These two graves on the hill, alone, and yet guarded for more than half a century, and remembered as Mr. W.'s children, confirm the record in Attleboro', which gives names and births of his chil. He was living in A. in 1750, where he owned lands inherited by will, from his father's estate. It is no wonder that in view of the lands on the Otter Creek, he should abandon the rough soil of Coventry, R. I. Had 12 chil."[4]

ISSUE OF 4EBENEZER WALKER [NO. 48] (3JANE METCALF [NO. 13], 2MICHAEL METCALF [NO. 3], 1REV. LEONARD METCALF [NO. 1]) AND DOROTHY ABELL

150. 5Johanna Walker, dau. of 4Ebenezer Walker [no. 48] and Dorothy Abell. Born on 18 July 1704 in Rehoboth, Bristol County, Massachusetts. Died on 5 May 1749 in Rehoboth, 44 years old.

Married David Carpenter, son of David Carpenter and Rebecca Hunt, on 12 Nov. 1724 in Rehoboth when 20 years old (David was 23 years old). David Carpenter b. on 1 June 1701 in Rehoboth; d. on 11 July 1787, 86 years old.

Issue of Johanna Walker and David Carpenter:

i. son 6Thomas Carpenter b. on 15 July 1725 in Rehoboth; m. Dorothy Bosworth.

ii. son David Carpenter b. on 1 Oct. 1727 in Rehoboth.

iii. dau. Elizabeth Carpenter b. on 15 March 1730 in Rehoboth; m. Joseph Atwood on 17 Jan. 1754 in Rehoboth when 23 years old.

397 iv. son John Carpenter b. on 6 April 1733 in Rehoboth.

v. son Nathaniel Carpenter b. on 13 Jan. 1743/4 in Rehoboth; m. Elizabeth Carpenter.

Exposition on Johanna Walker:

"Walker, Johanna, of Ebennezar and Mehittibell, July 18, 1704."[1] Johanna is clearly the daughter of Dorothy, not Mehittibell, the error probably due to a mistranscription.

"Walker, Johanna and David Carpenter, both of Rehoboth, married by Rev. John Greenwood Nov. 12, 1724. Int. July 13, 1724."[2]

"Carpenter, Johanna, May 5, 1749."[3]

"Johanna, b. July 18, 1704, d. Jan. 22, 1786 [sic], ae. 81 [sic]. She m. Nov. 12, 1724, David Carpenter, son of David, b. June 1, 1701, and d. July 11, 1787. A farmer in Rehoboth."[4] It is possible that Johanna died in 1786, and that the Johanna who died in 1749 was an otherwise unrecorded daughter.

By will, made 10 Feb. 1779, John gave

"To my beloved wife Esther Harris, the improvement of all my lands" in Roxbury and Brookline, "excepting one piece of land lying in Brookline that bounds on the land of John Harris Junr." . . . and of "my live stock of cattle, horse, kine and swine, and my out-door utensils of whatever sort," . . . with the "interest of money that still remains due to me from the estate of my brother in law Thomas Metcalf," . . . "and the interest of a legacy that is due to me from the estate of my honored mother in law Lydia Metcalf," while she remained his widow.

"To my dutiful son Michael," £120, and all the principal of the money remaining due out of the estate of Thomas Metcalf and Lydia his mother-in-law.

"To my grandson Henry Whiting," £12.

"To my grand daughter Elizabeth Whiting," £8.

"To my grand daughter Lucretia Whiting," £8.

"To my dutiful son John," "all my lands & buildings" in Brookline and Roxbury, with all the live stock, utensils, &c., "reserving to my wife the improvement," &c.

His wife Esther was to be Executrix.

[Facsimile of autograph written in 1787] John Harris.

Esther, the widow of John, also made a will, 23 May, 1796, in which she gave to her son Michael five dollars, and all the remainder of her estate to her son John.

Ware adds in a footnote:

> It is said that Jonathan was a very small man, and also that he was not very courageous, and sometimes his wife thought it necessary to use the rod of correction to break him of being so timid. His brother Ichabod did not like the training that his brother received, and proposed taking his place sometime when he expected the correction. So one night when the cows had not come home from pasture and it was getting dark, Jonathan's wife sent him for them. He hunted for them, but could not find them. On the way back he met his brother, and Ichabod said "Let us change clothes and I will go and take the whipping in your stead." So they changed their clothes and Ichabod walked into the house, and it is said that Mary received the correction she intended for Jonathan, and she never attepted to correct her husband after that. Exposition on Ezra Pond:

"Pond, Ezra and Abigal Farington, Nov. 26, 171_ [prob. 1718]."[1]

It is possible that Ezra was the son of Daniel Pond (brother of Robert) who probably married Tabitha _____ and had a daughter Susannah in 1690. However, the fact that Ezra's first son was named Robert and a daughter was named Joanna (and no child named Daniel nor Tabitha) makes it more likely that Ezra was the son of Robert and Joanna.

See also Ricker, 8739.[3]

"William [son of Jonathan and Hannah], m. Alice, his cousin, dau. of Joseph Metcalf, had 1 son, 2 daughters. (Manuscript of Dr. Thayer.)"[4] This is incorrect. William's sister Margaret married Col. John Williams who first married Alice Metcalf, Margaret's first cousin whose parents were Rev. Joseph Metcalf, Jonathan's brother, and Abiel Adams. (Alice had two daughters but no known son.) His marriage is corrected in Goodwin below.

Goodwin said:[5]

> William, born August 17, 1708. . . . William Metcalf, of Lebanon, Conn., was married to Abigail Edwards, daughter of Rev. Timothy Edwards, Pastor of the Congregational Church at East Windsor, Conn., October 25, 1737. Mrs. Abigail Metcalf died September 24, 1764, in her 57th year. William Metcalf, Esq., died June 15, 1773, in his 65th year.

In a footnote, Goodwin gives William's tombstone inscription:

> Here lies the body of William Metcalf, Esq., who was many years a judicious, faithful magistrate, a serious professor of religion, who, after long and patient enduring extreme pain, departed this life in hope of a better, June 15, 1773, in the 65th year of his age. [Grave-stone, Lebanon burying ground.]

William's death is listed in Ricker, 8739, as 13 June 1773, age 64.[6]

William and Abigail had five children.[7]

Exposition on Ebenezer Metcalf:

"Metcalfe, Ebenezer s. Ebenezer & Han[n]ah, b. Apr. 3, 1703."[1]

See also Ricker, 8735.[2]

Ebenezer Metcalf, Jr., son of Ebenezer and Hannah Metcalf, was born.[3]

"Metcalfe, Ebenezer, Jr. m. Thankfull Dileno, Oct. 7, 1725."[4]

Ebenezer Metcalf, Jr., married Thankfull Dileno on October 7, 1725.[5]

"Metcalfe, Ebenezer d. Jan. 22, 1780, AE 76 yrs. the 10th of Apr. 1779 O. S."[6]

Ebenezer Metcalf, Jr., died on January 22, 1780 (April 10, 1779 old style), age 76.[7]

Ebenezer's birth and marriage are listed in Ricker, 8735.[8]

Abell[9] said Ebenezer was born on 3 April 1703 and married Thankful Delano. They were members of the Goshen Society Church (First Church of Lebanon), which she joined in February 1730.

Goodwin also notes Ebenezer.[10]

E-Mail from Genevieve Metcalfe, vmetcalfe@earthlink.net, on 6 February 2001:

> Death of Ebenezer: 22 Jan 1780 as shown in Lebanon (CT) town record of births, marriages, deaths; vol.1, p. 196; FHL microfilm 1312154. This source also indicates that he would have been 76 years old as of "10 Apr O.Stile 1779", a date that is consistent with his Norwich birth record except for the day, which the latter showed as 3 Apr.
> Marriage of Ebenezer and Thankfull Dileno: 7 Oct 1725 (same source as above).

Allen Harold DuVall communicated detailed evidence about Ebenezer, Thankful and their descendants to the author on 16 February 2004. Included was a letter dated 27 February 1995 to Allen from Judith A. Smith, Assistant Town Clerk for the Town of Lebanon, with a xerographic copy of the information from vol. 1, p. 196, of the town vital records. It reads:

> Ebenezer Metcalfe Junr. & Thankfull Dileno were married together October the 7th 1725. Reuben Metcalfe son of Ebenezer & Thankfull Metcalfe was born March the 28th A. D. 1726. Simeon Metcalfe son of Ebenezer & Thankfull Metcalfe was born November the 5th A. D. 1729. Levi Metcalfe was born August 27th 1731. Abia Metcalfe was born March the 30 1736. Mrs. Thankfull Metcalfe wife of Mr. Ebenezer Metcalfe died 26th December 1777 in ye 76th year of her age. Mr. Ebene.r died 22d day of January A. D. 1780, aged 76 years ye 1st of Aprill O. Stile 1779.

In reading this, Allen discovered that the birth date information for Ebenezer has been misread by others as "aged 76 years ye 10th of Aprill O. Stile 1779." As noted in the record above, the "10th" should actually be read as "1st," the bottom loop of an "f" on the line above giving the impression of a zero and the "st" being overlooked. Thus Ebenezer's birth date would be 1 April 1703 (or, after adding back the eleven days skipped in the change from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar in 1752, 12 April 1703).

Allen notes that the 3 April 1703 date may possibly refer to Ebenezer's baptism.

As to Ebenezer's place of birth, Allen notes that Horace A. and Lewis P. Abell, The Abell Family in America, Robert Abell of Rehoboth, Massachusetts (Rutland, Vermont: The Tuttle Publishing Company, Inc., 1940) says Ebenezer's father had a deed from Caleb Abell to a tract of land in Lebanon, one side bounded by the town lines of Norwich and Lebanon. "He or his sons appear to have lived on this land. The family had several houses and lived in the locality of Norwich and Lebanon for many years."

xi. son Joseph Metcalf b. say in 1757 in Mansfield; d. on 18 Oct. 1760 in Mansfield, two or three years old.

Exposition on Dea. Timothy Metcalf:

Timothy Metcalf, son of Ebenezer and Hannah Metcalf, was born [presumably in Norwich].[1]

Timothy's death and burial is listed in Ricker, 8739.[2]

Goodwin notes Timothy.[3]

Timothy married his first cousin, Hannah Metcalf.

Roger Tansey, Timothy's sixth-great grandson, notes that Timothy's tombstone is in the Gurley (Pink) Cemetery in Mansfield, Connecticut. The inscription reads:

> In Memory of Deacon Timothy Metcalf who died March 10th 1773 in ye 63rd Year of his Age Mark ye Perfict Man & Beholde ye Upright for ye End of ye Man is Peace.

So Timothy who died in his 63rd year (62 years old) would have been born after 10 March 1710. Given the birth of the next younger sibling on 8 July 1771, Timothy must have been born before November 1710. June 1710 is a reasonable guess.

Roger adds that Deacon Timothy was commissioned an Ensign of the 10th company in the 5th regiment of the colony of Connecticut. He also served as Selectman for the Town of Mansfield, and represented Mansfield twice in the colonial legislature.

Some of the information is from Roger Tansey:

Timothy was an Ensign in October 1753. He was a Selectman in Mansfield from 1757 to 1759. He was Deacon of the Second Congregational Church (now Storrs Congregational Church) from 1758 to March 1773. He was a Representative from Mansfield in the Connecticut General Assembly in October 1760, 26 March 1761 and 14 May 1761.

Charles J. Hoadly, Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut, from May, 1751 to February, 1757, inclusive; Press of the Case, Lockwood & Brainard Co., Hartford, 1877; page 234; "This Assembly do establish and confirm Mr. Timothy Metcalf to be Ensign of the 10th company in the 5th regiment in this Colony, and order that he be commissioned acccordingly."

Abell[4] mentions Timothy.

Exposition on Sybil Hyde:

Sybel Hyde, twin with Priscilla, daughter of Samuel and Priscilla Hyde, was born on April 16, 1731.[1]

Sybil's death is listed in Ricker, 8739.[2]

"Sybil Hyde, born at Lebanon, Conn., 16 April, 1731, the third daughter of Samuel Hyde and Priscilla Bradford, of Lebanon, was a granddaughter of Samuel Hyde of the third generation. She m. 11 Dec., 1753, Jabez Metcalf, b. 30 Nov., 1718, son of Ebenezer Metcalf and Hannah Abel of Lebanon. . . . They settled at Lebanon, where she d. 5 Nov., 1790. He survived her and d. 15 Nov., 1794. They are buried in the old cemetery at Lebanon."[3]

Sybil[4] was born on 16 April 1731 in Lebanon and baptized on 25 April 1731. She married Jabez Metcalf, son of Ebenezer Metcalf and Hannah Abel, on 11 December 1753 in Lebanon. He was born on 30 November 1718 in Lebanon. They had one [sic] child born in Lebanon. In the New London County 1790 census Jabez was head of a household which included one male and one female.

Hannah died on 5 November 1790 in Lebanon, age 59. Jabez died there on 15 November 1794, age 75.

Exposition on Hannah Metcalf:

Hannah,[1] twin to Alice, was born on 2 May 1712 in Falmouth, Massachusetts. She married Timothy Metcalf, son of Ebenezer Metcalf and Hannah Abell, about 1736. Timothy was born about 1711 [sic, between April and October 1710, say June], probably in Lebanon, Connecticut.

Timothy and his family removed from Stafford, Connecticut, to Mansfield, Connecticut, in last 1745 after Timothy's father Ebenezer sold Timothy part of a farm he had bought from a Moses Rogers. (On 8 January 1750/1 Ebenezer gave Timothy the rest of the farm.)

Timothy died on 10 March 1773 in Mansfield. Hannah was living on 26 June 1774, the date when Timothy's estate was distributed to his widow Hannah; daughter Abiel; eldest son Ezra; sons Ebenezer, Timothy and Jabez; and daughters Alice, Abigail and Anne.

On 10/31/03 1:55 PM, Wyatt Kopp at wyattkopp@yahoo.com wrote:

I really thought your site was helpful, but I wanted to correct an error I noticed in my line. I figure everyone must ask you a lot of questions about the Metcalf's, but I figured I would contribute a little and that you might appreciate it since you have such a great wealth of information.

I just wanted to let you know that Mary Metcalfe, the daughter of Rev. Joseph Metcalfe and Abiel Adams, married Daniel Rudd, not Daniel Reed as you have listed on your site.

The Norwich Connecticut Vital records state, "Daniel Rudd and Mary Metcalf were Joined in marriage to Each other on ye first Day of July in ye year 1745."

Norwich Vital Records also state, "Daniell Rudd was Born March : 12 1709/10." The Norwich Records also state the following;

"2nd Daniel ye Son of Daniel Rudd and of his wife mary was born June 10th: 1754" and,

"Daniel ye Son of Daniel Rudd and of his wife mary, was born January 18, 1753" and,

"Daniel ye Son of Daniel Rudd and his wife Mary Died Febrary 18th: 1753" (this Daniel was baptised at the Fifth Church of Bozrah on Feb 18, 1753) and the Norwich Vital Records further say:

"Eunice ye Daghter of Daniel Rudd & his wife mary was born march 20th: 1747/48" (Eunice was baptised at the Fifth Church of Bozrah on March 27, 1748) and the Norwich Vital Records also state;

"Lucy ye Daughter of Daniel Rudd & his wife Mary was born January 2nd : 1750" and,

"Elizabeth ye Dauhter of Daniel Rudd & Mary his wife was born March 23: 1746" and,

"Asher ye Son of Daniel Rudd & of his wife Mary was born octor 11th 1759" and,

"2nd Elizabeth ye Daughter of Daniel Rudd & of mary was born Sept -- 1757."

These Records are from a book called Norwich Vital Records, which is in the collection of the New London and Norwich Libraries. Also, in the Norwich Library is a book called the Fifth Church of Bozrah Records and this book also is a source for this information. There is also a book called The History of Montville, which is in the New London Library. This book has a chapter on the Rudd's and lists Daniel's wife as Mary Metcalf.

Wyatt Kopp

Caulking said:[2]

Rudd. Jonathan and Nathaniel Rudd, brothers, came from Saybrook. The former settled east fo the Shetucket, and the latter at the West Farms. It is probable that they were the sons of that Jonathan Rudd who was married at Bride Brook in the winter of 1646–7.

Nathaniel Rudd married, April 16, 1685, Mary, daughter of John Post. His homestead was in that part of the West Farms which is now Bozrah. He died in April, 1727, leaving an estate valued at £689.

Daniel Rudd, one of the sons of Nathaniel, born in 1710, married for his second wife, (July 1, 1745,) Mary Metcalf, a daughter of the Rev. Joseph Metcalf of Falmouth, Me. [sic, Massachusetts.] She had previously been living with her relatives in Lebanon, to which place she came from her far-off home, according to tradition, in a three-days' journey, riding on a pillion behind Capt. James Fitch. Her son, Daniel Rudd, Jr., born June 10, 1754, married Abigail Allen of Montville, who died Jan. 20, 1857, wanting only a few months of being 100 years of age. Lucy Rudd, one of the daughters of this couple, married, first, Capt. Henry Caldwell of the U.S. Marines, and second, Major-General Henry Burbeck, an officer of the Revolutionary war and of that of 1812. General Burbeck died at New London, Oct. 2, 1848, aged 95. His relict, Mrs. Lucy Burbeck, is still living. It is a singular coincidence, occurring, it is presumed, very rarely in the history of families, that Mrs. Burbeck's father, Daniel Rudd, and her husband, Henry Burbeck, were born on the same day,—June 10, 1754.

Horace Metcalf, Samuel's grandson, wrote in 1903:[3]

> Samuel . . . had a brother Seth and twin [sic] sisters Mary and Esther. Samuel was born April 26, 1739 in Oatham [sic] Mass. died June 13, 1785 married in 1762 Hannah Richardson daughter of Thomas Richardson of Leicester, Ireland [actually, Leicester, Worcester County, Massachusetts] and (said to be) grandaughter of Lord Downing and [third-great-]grandaughter of William Pynchon one of the founders of Springfield Mass. and one of the Governers Assistants in Colonial times. She was born April 10, 1743 and died in Corinth Vermont August 17, 1812. They had 12 children the oldest of which was Eben . . .

The next entry probably does not apply to Samuel, although no other Samuel Metcalf over eight years old was known in Rutland at this time: "Medcalf, Samuel. Private, Capt. Elias Pratt's co.; enlisted May 13, 1779; discharged July 1, 1779; service, 1 mo. 18 days; company stationed at Rutland."[4]

"Metcalf, Samuel: b 4-26-1739 MA d 6-13-1785 MA m Hannah Richardson Sgt PS MA."[5]

In order to verify Horace Metcalf's statements in 1903 relating Samuel's service in the Revolution, this writer employed the services of Ray Beere Johnson II of Franklin, Massachusetts, a member of the Association of Professional Genealogists, to search for and transcribe Samuel's records in the Massachusetts State Archives. Prior to microfilming, the records had been stored in the attic of the State House (before they were moved to the Archives), subject to the depredations of heat and mice, and were faded, damaged or otherwise difficult to read. Nevertheless, Ray was able to copy and transcribe the original records from the microfilmed copies. Three records were found which closely matched those noted by Horace. Samuel served in all three periods under Capt. John Crawford. The following extracts from Ray's transcriptions were made by this writer:

> Sam. Metcalf, Sergt. Marched Apr. 19, 1775 [the Lexington Alarm]. Served fourteen days. Paid £1 14s 4d, including travel to Oakham.[6]

> Saml. Medcalf, Sargt. Engaged 20 August 1777, discharged 23 August 1777. Served five days including two days to return to home (40 miles, 20 miles per day). Paid 8s.[7]

Note that Horace and Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War recorded that Samuel marched to Bennington on the alarm of 20 August 1777.

> Samuel Medcalf, Sergt. Engaged 7 September 1778, discharged 29 November 1778. Served two months, 23 days including ten days to return home (200 miles, 20 miles per day). Paid £6 18s 4d.[8]

The following two records about a Samuel Metcalf available in the State Archives pertain to Sgt. Samuel's first cousin, Lt. Samuel Metcalf (1739 Wrentham–1817 Newport, NH), son of Michael Metcalf and Abiel Colburn:

"Metcalf, Samuel, srv as Sgt & Pvt in 6th MA Regt."[9]

"Massachusetts Line—6th Regiment. Captain Japheth Daniels' Company, November 14, 1777 to January 3, 1778. Muster Roll of Captn Japheth Daniel's Company in ye Batallion of Massachusetts Bay Forces in ye Service of the United States, commanded by Coll Thomas Nixon. . . . No. 1 [of 4], Inlisted Febr 14, [Sgt] Samuel Metcalf, [Term] 3 yrs, On Command with Prisoners on their March to Hartford."[10]

Following is the family story of Samuel's call as a minuteman in response to the Lexington Alarm of 19 April 1775. It was written down by Samuel's great-granddaughter, Alice Amanda (Metcalf) Morgan (b. 1856) and transcribed by Alice' first cousin once removed, Anna Maria (Metcalf) Thomas (b. 1877). Bracketed comments have been added for clarity.

> One story which always made a great impression upon my youthful mind that I frequently heard my father [Horace Metcalf, b. 1817] relate regarding his grandfather [Samuel Metcalf, b. 1739] was as follows. He would say "When my father, David Metcalf [b. 1766] was a boy of about 10 years [actually, 8 years old] he was busily engaged in turning a grindstone on which his father, Samuel Metcalf, was sharpening a scythe.

The grindstone was in front of the house and between the house and highway. The house was in a little valley [near Oakham, Worcester County, Massachusetts] on one side of which the road led up a long hill, the road being visible for some distance from where the grindstone was located.

"Suddenly the father straightened from his stooped position and assumed a listening attitude. David then heard the clatter of horses' hoofs and at that moment a horseman appeared over the brow of the hill.

"Another house was near the top of the hill. The horseman slackened his speed for a moment and called out something which could not be understood at the distance where they were.

"But Samuel Metcalf divined the meaning of the call and the waving of the hat which accompanied the call. The horseman came galloping on. Samuel lay down his scythe and with the words 'That means me,' went and entered his cottage door, took his musket from its resting place over the fireplace, slung his powder horn and bullet pouch over his shoulder and, surrounded by his wife and children, stood outside his door as the horseman slackened speed and called out the mustering place and then galloped on.

"Samuel kissed his wife and each child as good bye and with no further delay started for the muster field."

Such was the alacrity with which the Minutemen of Massachusetts responded to the call of their country.

Exposition on Hannah Richardson:

"Medcalf, Wid. Hannah and Nathan Lamb of Leicester, int[ention] Sept. 24, 1787."[1]

After Samuel died in 1785, Hannah married second her first cousin Nathan Lamb in 1787. Nathan was the widower of Hannah's older sister Elizabeth. Between 1788 and 1792 Hannah and Nathan moved to Corinth, Vermont with some of her children. She died on 17 August 1812 and was buried in Corinth.

Lamb[2] records Hannah's (and Nathan's) Richardson, Pynchon and Wyllys ancestries. He also records the inscription on her tombstone in Corinth Center Cemetery:[3]

In memory of
Mrs. Hannah Lamb late wife of
Mr. Nathan Lamb formerly wife of
Mr. Samuel Metcalf who died August 17, 1812 in the 70th year of her age.
"The dreary affliction long she bore
She yet the robe of patience wore
Nor from the path of Virtue strayed
Nor duty to her God delayed."

Lamb continues describing Hannah's will[4] dated 10 August 1812. "It appoints her son Alpha Metcalf executor. It bequeaths to he son Alpha one-half of her real estate and includes bequests to her daughters Esther Burbank, Gene Orr, Elizabeth Glidden, Hannah Hodges, and Abigail Heath, and a granddaughter Eliza K. Metcalf. Her estate was appraised at $317.33."

In the body of his book, Lamb describes Nathan's ancestry.

Clarke said:[5]

> Sergt Isaac Wheeler, son of Isaac and Sarah (Lawrence) Wheeler, born at Medfield March 24, 1735, married at Rutland, Mass., March 14, 1765 Elizabeth Stone, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Stone) Stone of Rutland. . . .
> Isaac Wheeler died at Rutland April 22, 1817 aged 82 years. His wife Elizabeth died Dec. 22, 1813 aged 70. . . .
> Isaac Wheeler lived with his father in Medfield until he was twenty years of age when he accompanied the family to Rutland and continued with his father upon the Rutland farm until the death of the latter in 1769. . . .
> Isaac was a private in Capt. Peter Davis' company of Col. Ruggles' regiment which marched for the relief of Fort William Henry in 1757. His name appears upon "A muster Roll" dated at Rutland Jan. 22, 1759 and by this it appears that Isaac served with his company which "marched from Rutland to Kinderhook." (Military Archives, State House, Boston.) . . .
> During the troublous times immediately preceding the American Revolution, Isaac was a Sergeant in the Rutland Company of Minute Men and upon receipt of the tidings from Lexington and Concord, he marched with his company and joined the American Army at Cambridge.
> His name may be found in the Military Archives in the State House at Boston upon the "Lexington Alarm Roll" as Sergeant of "Capt. Thomas Eustis Company which marched to Cambridge April 19, 1775." He served in the army during the siege of Boston in 1775 and 1776.

His brother Abraham Wheeler, and Asa Davis who later became his son-in-law, and Timothy Metcalfe a cousin who had come from Dedham to Rutland, were all members of this company.

Lieut. John Stone, and Israel Stone, his brothers-in-law and five cousins of his wife were also in this company, making ten persons in the Rutland Company who were related to Isaac Wheeler by blood or marriage.

Of this company, Read, the historian of Rutland, says, "They were as fine and brave a company as Rutland could ever boast of."

In 1779, Isaac was a Sergeant in Capt. Phineas Walker's Company[6] in the 7th Mass. Reg't., which was a Worcester County regiment, and was in the detachment of Guards on duty at Rutland. (Military Archives, State House, Boston.)

Several other relatives of Isaac Wheeler were soldiers in the Revolutionary Army.

His cousins, Moses Wheeler and Isaac Wheeler of Holden, were members of the Holden company and the former died at Valley Forge, while another cousin Rice Wheeler, a grandson of Zebediah went into the army from Warren, Mass.

Capt. Adam Wheeler of Hubbardston, the husband of Isaac's sister Mercy was a captain in the Continental Army during the war.

Isaac Wheeler died on April 22, 1817 aged 82 years and six months [sic, 82 years, 29 days] and was buried in the old cemetery at Rutland Center by the side of his wife Elizabeth who died Dec. 15, 1813 and near the grave of his father, Isaac Wheeler. . . .

Some years since one of [his] grandsons, Eli Holbrook of West Boylston showed his gratitude by causing to be erected over the graves of Isaac and Elizabeth a stone perpetuating their memory.

"Isaac Wheeler, born March 24, 1734–5."[7]

Albert Wheeler said:[8]

Isaac Wheeler, son of Isaac and Sarah (Lawrence) Wheeler. Born at Medfield, Mass., March 24, 1734–5; died at Rutland, Mass., April 22, 1817. Married at Rutland, Mass., March 14, 1765, Elizabeth Stone, who was born March 29, 1743; died Dec. 22, 1813. He served as Sergeant in the main guard during the Revolution.

"Elizabeth, w. Isaac, Dec. 22, 1813, a. 75 [70 on grave stone]."[1]

Daniel Wheeler said:[2]

> Elizabeth Stone, wife of Isaac Wheeler was the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Stone) Stone and was born at Rutland March 29, 1743. Her father was a descendant of Gregory Stone, and came from Framingham to Rutland. Her brother John was Lieutenant of the Rutland company of Minute Men in which her husband Isaac was Sergeant. Another brother, Israel, was also a Revolutionary soldier and afterwards went with Gen. Rufus Putnam to Ohio and settled at Mariatte. Her cousin Samuel Stone Jr. was also a Revolutionary soldier.
> Her brother Lieut. (afterward Capt.) John Stone, after his return from the war bought the place adjoining the Wheeler farm on the south east and lived there the remainder of his life.
> Gen. Charles P. Stone of the Union Army during the civil war and afterward commander of the Egyptian army, was a descendant of a brother of Elizabeth Stone.

Exposition on Capt. Adam Wheeler:

"Wheeler, Capt. Adam, Aug. 24, 1802, [a. 70. Church record.]."[1]

Albert Wheeler said:[2]

Adam Wheeler, son of Ephraim and Miriam (Martin) Wheeler. Born at Shrewsbury, Mass., April 29, 1732; died Aug. 24, 1802. Married Nov. 17, 1763, Mercy Wheeler of Rutland, Mass., who died July 10, 1808, aged 67, dau. of Isaac Wheeler and Sarah (Lawrence) Wheeler.

He lived in Rutland, Mass., for a time and about 1766 removed to Hubbardston, Mass., where he was a prominent and highly esteemed citizen, and a deacon of the church. He served in the French and Indian War; and as a Captain in the Revolutionary War, at Lexington, Charlestown, Bunker Hill, Newark, Stillwater, Albany, White Plains, etc. In the ill-fated Shay's Rebellion, he was next in prominence to Shay himself and figured almost as largely. Being of the opinion that the people were being done flagrant injustice, he raised a company of 100 men, and with 80 of them marched to Worcester and took possession of the court house, where his forces were increased by the townspeople, who were determined that no court should be held until they had obtained redress from their grievances. "On the steps were stationed a file of men with fixed bayonets, while in front stood Capt. Wheeler with drawn sword."

When the High Sheriff arrived and sought to address the insurgents, Capt. Wheeler informed him that he was one of their grievances, and that next to his person, were his fees, which were excessive and intolerable especially in criminal executions. The following letter is a clear indication of their desire for redress without actual recourse to arms.

"The Honorable General Lincoln, Sir:—As the officers of the people now convened in defense of their rights and priveleges, have sent a petition to the General Court, for the sole purpose of accomodating our present unhappy affairs, we justly expect that hostilities may cease on both sides until we have a return from our legislature. Your honour will therefore be pleased to give us an answer.

"Per order of the Committee for reconciliation.

"Francis Stone, Chairman
Dan'l Shays, Captain
Adam Wheeler

Pelham, 1-31-1787"

To escape the penalty for his participation in that affair he fled to Canada and remained there four years. In 1791 he petitioned as follows:

"The petition of Adam Wheeler to the town of Hubbardston: Humbly showeth that your petr was at Pelham about 4 years ago, in the unhappy disturbance that happened in this country; and that Dr. Hinds has commenced an action against me which is gone to execution which is not in my power to discharge. Gentlemen, friends, fellow citizens, and neighbors: your petr prays for help to discharge said debt and costs, which is £9-s4 d9, and your petr as in duty bound will ever pray.

"Adam Wheeler"

The esteem in which he was still held by his townsmen is shown by this entry on the town records:

"Voted that the selectmen settle the debt of Capt. Wheeler in the best and easiest manner possible."

352. [6]Peter Walker, son of [5]Peter Walker [no. 134] and Mary Child. Born on 14 July 1718 in Rehoboth, Bristol County, Massachusetts.

Married first Martha Carpenter, dau. of Stephen Carpenter and Martha Hunt, on 8 Dec. 1748 in Rehoboth when 30 years old (Martha was 22 years old). Martha Carpenter b. on 16 Jan. 1725/6 in Rehoboth; d. on 22 Aug. 1756 in Rehoboth, 30 years old.

Issue of Peter Walker and Martha Carpenter:

843 i. son [7]Samuel Walker b. on 2 Sep. 1748, probably in Rehoboth.

Married second Hannah Fuller. Hannah Fuller of Willington, Tolland County, Connecticut.

Issue of Peter Walker and Hannah Fuller:

844 ii. son [7]Peter Walker b. in 1760 in Ashford, Windham County, Connecticut.

845 iii. dau. Mary Walker b. in Ashford.

iv. dau. Sarah Walker b. in Ashford; m. Jonathan Peck.

v. dau. Hannah Walker b. in Ashford; m. Ebenezer Cross.

846 vi. dau. Grace Walker b. in Ashford.

Exposition on Peter Walker:

"Walker, Petter, of Peter and Mary, July 14, 1718."[1]

"Walker, Peter and Martha Carpenter, both of Rehoboth, married by Rev. John Greenwood Dec. 8, 1748. Int. Nov. 19, 1748."[2]

Walker said:[3]

> Peter, b. July 14, 1718, date of death unknown. He m. Hannah Fuller of Willington, Ct. He settled in Ashford (Westford Parish,) Ct., as early as 1760. Both m. Cong. ch. He was a farmer and had 6 chil. (Martha, w. of Peter, d. Aug. 22, 1756. Probably 2d w. [sic, 1st] of this Peter.)

It is assumed that only Samuel, of Peter's children, was from Peter's marriage to Martha, and that the remaining children were from Peter's marriage to Hannah. It is acceptable that son Samuel's birth preceded father Peter's marriage by three months.

941 viii. son Gideon Walker b. in June 1782 in Rutland.

942 ix. son Samuel Beach Walker b. on 17 Dec. 1784 in Whiting.

Exposition on Gideon Walker:

"Walker, Gideon, s. Daniel and Mary (Perry), Nov. 29, 1838."[1]

"Walker, Gideon, and Rachel Foster; m. by Eld. Peter Werden, Feb. 20, 1762."[2]

"Gideon, b. in Attleboro', Nov. 20, 1738, (Att. Rec.) and d. Nov. 2, 1793. He m. about 1764 or 5 [sic], Rachel Foster, of A., dau. of Benj'n and Rachel (Day,) b. April 21, 1743, and d. in Whiting, Vt., March 31, 1815, ae. 72. They first settled in Coventry, R. I., but in 1768, removed to Clarendon, Vt., and a year or two later, to Rutland. In 1784, they removed to Whiting, Vt., where they died. He served in the War of the Revolution. At the time of the retreat from Ticonderoga, in 1777, his wife, with 4 children, went on horseback from Rutland to New Providence, now Cheshire, Mass., and remained with Lewis Walker, cousin of her husband, who afterward removed to Clarendon, Vt. He [Gideon] was a staunch Whig, and was one of the Committee of Safety for Vermont. In 1777, [the British] Col. Baum on his way to Bennington, with his forces passed through Clarendon. Mr. W. had a team of 4 very large and fine oxen. Col. B. pressed him, to help convey the ordnance of his army. Having crossed the Butten-kill river [Battenkill river in Bennington County, Vermont, and Washington County, New York], and encamped for the night on the south bank, Mr. W. watched his opportunity, and before morning, eluded the guard, made his escape, and returned home. Both were m. ch. Bap., and had 8 [sic] chil. The 6 sons were all farmers in Whiting, Vt., and their farms were adjoining, and formed one of the best tracts of land in Addison Co., embracing about 1200 acres on the Otter Creek. . . . "[3]

"Gideon has great force of character and large power of endurance. His w. possessed indomitable energy and firmness, with superior mental endowments. They made large sacrifices, both pecuniary and personal, for their country's independence."[4]

The vital records of Attleboro note only one surviving Rachel Foster, a daughter of Benjamin and Rachel (Day) Foster, born 21 April 1743; one intention of marriage of a Rachel Foster (to Lt. Michael Sweet) in Attleboro on 16 January 1762; several births to Michael and Rachael Sweet in Attleboro, indicating the marriage took place; and one death and burial of Rachel, wife of Michael Sweet, in December 1815, age 72 years. Based on this and the record of the Coventry marriage and Coventry births of their children, it is assumed that Mr. Walker was incorrect and that Gideon married another Rachel Foster probably from Coventry.

Issue of Rebecca Walker and Elijah Osburn:

i. dau. [7]Mehitable Osburn m. Charles Simmons.

Exposition on Rebecca Walker:

"Walker, Rebecah, d. Daniel and Mary (Perry), June 14, 1740."[1]

"Rebecca, b. June 14, 1740. She m. Elijah Osburn and they settled in Clarendon, Vt. An incident is told of 3 of their children who were lost in the woods, 4 days, lived on snails, and when found, were 3 or 4 miles from home and nearly famished. The neighbors and the people of Rutland went out in search of them. The oldest, a boy of 7 yrs., said, 'they ate but little themselves, and saved the snails for the baby, and that a great black dog pawed leaves over them in the night.' At that time, such dogs were numerous in Vt. Chil.—(1) Mehetable, m. Chas. Seamans or Simmons. Res. C., and had 12 chil."[2]

387. [6]Ichabod Walker, son of [5]Daniel Walker [no. 146] and Mary Perry. Born on 23 Dec. 1749 in Attleboro, Bristol County, Massachusetts. Died on 21 March 1832 in Potsdam, St. Lawrence County, New York, 82 years old.

Married first Abigail Logia in 1769 when 19 or 20 years old. Abigail Logia d. on 4 April 1798, probably in Clarendon, Rutland County, Vermont.

Issue of Ichabod Walker and Abigail Logia:

i. dau. [7]Olive Walker b. on 1 March 1770 in Rutland, Rutland County, Vermont; d. in Sep. 1770 in Rutland, about six months old.

956 xiv. dau. Abigail Walker b. on 12 May 1796 in Clarendon.

Married second Penelope _____ on 20 Feb. 1799 when 49 years old. Penelope _____ of Worthington, Hampshire County, Massachusetts; d. in Dec. 1836 in Lancaster, Fairfield County, Ohio; m. (1) Joseph Ring.

Exposition on Ichabod Walker:

"Walker, Ichabod, s. Daniel and Mary (Perry), Dec. 23, 1749."[1]

"Ichabod, b. Dec. 23, 1749, d. March 21, 1832. He m. 1769, Abigail Logia, who d. April 4, 1798. He m. 2dly, Feb. 20, 1799, Mrs. Penelope Ring, of Worthington, (relict of Joseph,) who d. Dec., 1836, in Lancaster, Ohio. He settled in Rutland, Vt., about 1770, and lived where the Court house now stands. In the commencement of the Revolutionary War, he was driven from his home, and afterward settled in Clarendon, Vt. In 1831, he rem. to Potsdam, N. Y., where he soon after died. He was a farmer, m. Bap. ch. and a 'good man'; had 14 chil., and all b. in C., except for the 1st two."[2]

Assuming (as said by Walker) that Ichabod settled in Clarendon soon after the commencement of the Revolution, then his third child Hannah, born in 1774, would not have been born in Clarendon—Hannah and the first two children would have been born in Rutland. It is also possible that the fourth child Abraham also was born in Rutland.

Exposition on Maj. Joseph Wilson:

"Willson, Joseph, s. of Uriah and Mary, Apr. 21, 1745."[1]

Vital records from Stevens:[2]

Joseph Wilson married first Mary ____.

Mary's surname may have been Woods. Mary Woods, daughter of Samuel Woods and Patience Bigelow, was born on 16 March 1738 in Groton and was said to have married this Joseph Wilson. Her birth date corresponds to Mary's age at death in the Keene records.

Or Mary's surname may have been Wheeler, possibly a sister of Jonathan Wheeler who married Joseph's sister Chloe. The death record in Gilsum of Joseph's first child Joel listed Joel as the son of Joseph Wilson and Mary Wheeler.

Or Joseph may have married first Mary Wheeler who died after the birth of Joel and then married Mary Woods. This is unlikely given the birth spacing of Joseph's children.

The Woods surname is assumed herein since death records are not always reliable.

In any case, Mary died on 19 January 1776, age 38. Joseph married second Sarah Wilder on 2 June 1777 in Lancaster, Massachusetts. Sarah died on 12 May 1813 in Keene. Joseph died on 30 January 1816 in Keene.

Exposition on Noah Wilson:

Vital records from Stevens:[1] Noah was born on 20 April 1761 in Wrentham. He married Mary "Polly" Rowley, daughter of Thomas Rowley and Lois Cass. She apparently died before Noah. Noah died on 7 April 1844 in Alba, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, and was buried there.

"Willson, Noah, s. of Michael and Mary, Apr. 20, 1761."[2]

Noah's biography appears in a history of Bradford County, Pennsylvania:[3]

> Noah Wilson, the Alba pioneer, was an ardent patriot of the Revolutionary war. He enlisted at Rowe, Mass., August 14, 1777 and marched to Bennington, Vt. and with his company participated in the battle at that place under the command of Colonel Wells. Afterwards he returned home and immediately marched to Stillwater, thence to Saratoga and Ft. Edward and finally to Saratoga where he arrived the morning after the capture of General Burgoyne. He returned home again soon after, having served in this tour about two months, during which time he participated in several skirmishes. In May, 1780, he joined Captain Hastings' company in Colonel Jackson's Massachusetts regiment at West Point and served therein as a private six months. During this term of service he was present at the execution of Major Andre. In January, 1781, he marched to Danby, Vt. and there enlisted in the company of volunteers commanded by his father [sic, half-brother] Capt. Ebenezer Wilson (who is buried at Batavia, N. Y.) in the regiment of Colonel Warner, or Colonel Herrick. He was marched to Ft. Castleton in the vicinity of which he was engaged in scouting expeditions and guard duty until June, 1782. In July, 1782, having removed to Granville, N. Y. he there enlisted in the company of volunteer rangers under Captain Solomon Baker and rendered duty upon the frontiers until the first of May following. He then enlisted at Providence, R. I. on the ship Marcus, commanded by Captain Olney, chartered as a letter of marque and cruised in the sound and towards the West Indies. While off the coast of Virginia the ship was captured by a British frigate and burned. He escaped to an island on the coast of the Carolinas.
> Mr. Wilson married Mary Rowley and his subsequent removal with his family to Bradford county is thus chronicled by his son, Dr. Irad Wilson:
> "Noah Wilson left Addison township, Addison county, Vt. some 16 years after the close of the Revolutionary war with a company of sixteen men to settle on the bank of the St. Lawrence river in Canada, but finding the same government there they had just emerged from, they unanimously resolved to return to the south side of the river where the cross of St. George could find no congenial breezes to kiss its crimson folds. The journey of 200 miles was performed in 16 days on foot. Mr. Wilson was not willing to relinquish his desire to settle in a new country and hearing of the Connecticut grant in Northern Pennsylvania and Ohio, examined the title of the Connecticut company and believing it good, resolved to view the land. Accordingly in the month of April, 1802, he saddled a good horse and 'rode out into the west' and one day as the 'sun went low,' came to the place now bearing the name of Alba. The stream flowing by carried pure and clear water, and Mr. Wilson then and there named the spot which afterwards and for many years became his home, after the pellucid fluid Alba — white — an emblem of purity.Mr. Wilson spent the first summer in the wilderness at Alba and raised the first crop of corn that was grown in the settlement by setting fire to a windfall at the base of Armenia mountain (which Mr. Wilson also named), burning it over and planting corn among the logs with the peen-end of a shoe-hammer, that being the only hoe he could find in the country. He raised about 40 bushels of good sound corn which he stored for use in a crib until his family should come. He also cleared four acres and sowed it to wheat, the same also being the first of that cereal raised in the limits of the present borough. His house during that first summer was a little cabin about the size of an ordinary bedstead, open at one end and covered with bark. His bed consisted of hemlock boughs covered with a horse blanket. His bill of fare contained bread made by a Mr. Lindsay, then living on the Allen Taylor farm, the flour being brought from Athens on horseback; venison graced his board whenever he chose to kill a deer, and brook trout could be had for the catching — no hard job in those days. Bruin furnished the fat in which to prepare the 'fry'.

"In the fall of 1802 after harvesting his corn and drying what pumpkins he needed, he returned to Vermont for his family, with whom on the 5th of May, 1803, he began his pilgrimage for the West. His family consisted of his wife, four sons and three daughters, and with them and his goods he loaded two wagons, the same being drawn by five horses. Mr. Wilson had bought 3,000 acres of the Connecticut company and had surveyed the same. The newcomers found at Troy, Elihu Smead in a little log house with about an acre of the woods cut away to prevent the trees from falling down and crushing the cabin, and John Barber had about the same extent cleared near the site of Veile's steam mill. These settlers together with Caleb Williams, Reuben, Samuel and Aaron Case, and Dr. Reuben Rowley (his brother-in-law) accompanied Mr. Wilson from Troy to Alba and with their axes cut and cleared a road for the wagons to pass. Late in the afternoon of May 20, the cabin of Mr. Wilson was reached and occupied by a portion of the family; Dr. Irad, then a boy of five years, sleeping under the wagon, while a sister slept in it and the accompanying men by the log fires which they kindled. The next day was occupied in making a better and more comfortable house, which was completed the same day, the roof of bark even being put on." Dr. Wilson says, 'we all lodged the second night in comfortable quarters. The bedsteads consisted of crotched sticks driven into th ground with little poles reaching from the cracks between the logs, and elm bark served as bed cords. As we had more leisure, basswood planks were split for flooring and other preparations for comfort made. Being in a new country the next thing was to cut down the forest, clear up a farm and make a permanent home. All our energies were extended in this same direction.'"

The patriot father was given a pension in his closing years for his faithful services. He died at Alba in the spring of 1844, aged 84 years and is buried in the village cemetery at that place. The children of Noah and Mary Wilson were Martha, Noah, Hosea, Almira, Malinda, Irad, Iram and Samantha.

Martha married Robert McKean (I—206 [Vol. I, p. 206]) of Burlington, 2nd to Daniel Loomis.

Noah married a Miss Smith.

Hosea died in early manhood.

Almira married Silas Gray.

Malinda married Reuben M. Taber of Canton.

Irad, born January 20, 1798 at Addison, Vt., began reading medicine at the age of 16 years and practiced that profession at Alba for nearly half a century; he was chosen county commissioner in 1869 and elected state representative, 1843 and '44; was active in the state militia, filling the positions of captain and colonel and was best known as "Colonel Wilson"; was Alba's first post-master and kept up his active duties as ticket and station agent until past 85 years of age; he was a gracious and remarkable old gentleman; his death occurred July 4, 1884. Col. Wilson married, first, Sally M. Elliott and had children, Volney M., Charles S., Allen M., Iram, Addison, Maria, Hannah, Samantha, Sarah, Almira and Harriet; married, second, Ann Crandall.

Iram married Hannah, daughter of Jacob Grantier.

Samantha married Buell Smith.

A correction to the above appears later:[4]

Wilson, page 39 — The children of Dr. Irad and Sally (Elliot) Wilson were Oliver, Volney M., Irad, Iram, Cortland S., Allen M., Addison, Eugene, Maria (Mrs. L. J. Audrus), Samantha (Mrs. John Baker), Almira

(Mrs. Jefferson Witherall), Emma (Mrs. Erastus Manley). Hannah, Sarah, Harriet and Andrew were step-children, or children of his second wife, Mrs. Ann Crandall.

As noted above, Noah served several times during the Revolution. One service is recorded as follows:[5]

Wilson, Noah, "Murrisfield." List of men raised for the 6 months service and returned by Brig. Gen. Paterson as having passed muster in a return dated Camp Totoway, Oct. 25, 1780; also, Private, Capt. John Hastings's (2s) co., Col. Henry Jackson's (16th) regt.; pay roll for June and July, 1780; joined July 22, 1780.

"Murrisfield" was a reference to Myrifield, also known as Rowe Village, now as Rowe, Franklin County, Massachusetts.

See http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~mdtmgug/cemeteries/alba01cem.htm for a listing and photograh of Noah's burial in Alba Cemetery.

Noah and his family were enumerated in the 1790 federal census of Shoreham, Addison County, Vermont, as follows:[6]

Four males 16 or older (Noah and three others), two males under 16 (possibly son Noah and one other), three females (Mary, daughter Martha, possibly daughter Malinda).

Noah and his family were enumerated in the 1810 federal census of Canton, Luzerne County (later Bradford County), Pennsylvania, as follows:[7]

Three males 10 to 15 (son Hosea, son Irad, son Iram), one male 16 to 25 (son Noah), one male 45 or older (Noah), one female under 10 (daughter Samantha), one female 10 to 15 (daughter Almira), one female 16 to 25 (?), one female 26 to 44 (?), one female 45 or older (Mary).

Noah and his family were enumerated in the 1820 federal census of Canton, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, as follows:[8]

One male 16 to 25 (son Iram), two males 45 or older (Noah and ?), one female 16 to 25 (daughter Samantha), one female 26 to 44 (?), one female 45 or older (Mary).

Noah and his wife were enumerated in the 1830 federal census of Canton, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, as follows:[9]

One male 20 to 29 (?), one male 50 to 59 (Noah), one female 50 to 59 (Mary). The age brackets for Noah and Mary are off by 10 years.

Noah (a widower) was enumerated in the 1840 federal census of Canton, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, as follows:[10]

One male 70 to 79 (Noah).

Exposition on John Harris:

Harris said:[1]

> John, fourth child of John and second child of Esther (Metcalf) Harris, born in Brookline, 1 Oct. 1750, inherited from his father the old homestead which had descended from their ancestor [John's great grandfather] Robert. John lived on the homestead until the death of [his uncle] John in 1788, when he removed (with his father and mother) into the house of the latter, which came by gift, with over a hundred acres. The old house remained standing until the death of [father] John, when the son—a few months after, in 1796—took it down. In the year 1802, he erected on the same spot a building, since known . . . as the Loker house, now destroyed by fire. The homestead itself John sold in 1828, after it has been uninterruptedly in the possession of the family for nearly one hundred and seventy-five years.

John married 1st, 2 March, 1780, Mary, daughter of Lieutenant Nathaniel Niles of Randolph, a revolutionary officer. She was born 21 Dec. 1757, and died at Brookline, 7 May, 1814. He married 2d. Abigail _____ widow of Solomon Hall of Newton, who was born 22 Sept. 1766, and died 13 Sept. 1854. John Harris died in Brookline, 5 Dec. 1831. His will was dated 13 June, 1828, by which he gave his wife five dollars only, as her support was secured by marriage settlement; to son Benjamin N. (whom he had previously assisted) seventy-five dollars; to daughter Mary Clark Sumner, one hundred and fifty dollars; to daughter Lucy Marean, three hundred and fifty dollars; to Bathsheba Harris, widow of his late son Robert, and to Robert's children, viz., Joseph Wales, Charles, and Caroline, fifty dollars each; and to son Luther Metcalf, the residue of his estate, he to support his sister Esther Harris.

1103 iv. son Dr. George Ware b. on 5 Sep. 1761 in Dighton.

v. son John Hodges Ware b. in Dighton.

Exposition on Dr. George Ware:

"Ware, George, ch. William and Anna, Aug. 26, 1734."[1]

"George, Aug. 26, 1734; d. Feb. 1777, in his 37th year."[2]

Ware also said:[3]

George, born in Norton, Aug. 26, 1734; died Feb. 16, 1771, in his 37th year. He married Mary Richmond. ["She married second" (pub. Aug. 29, 1772 at D.) Thomas Church, Esq., of Little Compton.] Epitaph in Weir Burying Ground, Dighton, Mass.:

"In memory of Dr. George Ware, Physician,whose genius and abilities rendered him respectable and enabled him to discharge with uncommon lustre the duties of his profession. Kindness to his wife, care and tenderness to his children, hospitality to man and fondness to oblige his neighbors, were among his social virtues. Having displayed the spirit of a Christian, through long and painful sickness, he met death with calmness and resignation, Feb. xvi. A. D. MDCCLXXI. Aetatis 37."

Will probated Taunton, Feb. 25, 1771, mentions these children: [Anna, Sarah, William Richmond, George and John Hodges] wife Mary and brother Sylvester Richmond, Execs.

467. 7Joseph Ware, son of 6Dr. William Ware [no. 181] and Lydia Walker. Born on 4 March 1756 in Dighton, Bristol County, Massachusetts. Died about June 1783, 27 years old.

Married Hannah Richmond on 15 Feb. 1781 when 24 years old. Hannah Richmond of Taunton, Bristol County, Massachusetts; m. (2) Zephaniah Talbot on 12 Sep. 1790.

Issue of Joseph Ware and Hannah Richmond:

i. dau. 8Abigail Ware b. about Dec. 1781 in Dighton.

1104 ii. son Joseph Ware b. on 11 Aug. 1783 in Dighton.

Exposition on Joseph Ware:

"Joseph, May [sic] 4, 1756."[1]

Ware also said:[2]

Joseph, born in Dighton, March 4, 1756; married (pub. Feb. 15, 1781) Hannah Richmond of Taunton. She survived him, and married second Zephaniah Talbot (pub. Sept. 12, 1790). Will dated May 5, 1782, probated in 1783 [?], mentions wife Hannah, daughter Abigail and expected child; sister Lydia Ware, exec.

If son Joseph (said to be born 11 August 1783) was the expected child when the will was made, then either the will was made 5 May 1783 or son Joseph was born 11 August 1782. Daughter Abigail was likely to be born no earlier than December 1781. So Joseph was likely to be born as noted, 11 August 1783, not 1782. Thus the date of the will was probably 5 May 1783 and father Joseph died probably died between 5 May 1783 and 11 August 1783.

"Eli, May 31 [sic], 1748; d. in F., Nov. 1, 1835; lived in Franklin."[4]

Ware also said:[5]

Eli, was born on his father's homestead at Franklin (now Unionville) then Wrentham, on May 13, 1748, and died there November 1, 1835–6 [sic]; this homestead is situated near the Bellingham line at corner of Central and Spring Streets; the house is very old, of the low back roof pattern, and it is a question whether it was built by [father] Eliezer, or [grandfather] Eliezer. It descended to Eli, with the adjoining farm, part by purchase and part by inheritance. Eli was very religiously inclined and attended services regularly at the old church at Franklin Centre during his entire life; tradition says no inclemency of the weather ever kept him away from a single service. United with this church in 1781. He married at Wrentham, June 27, 1771, Tamar, daughter of Samuel and Margaret (Little) Wight (b. at W. May 17, 1750; d. at F. March 1, 1831). She joined Franklin church in 1797.

[sic] 22, 1767 (intention at Mendon, Nov. 10, 1766), Lydia, daughter of John and Rachel Green, born in Mendon, March 30, 1745; died May 25 [sic], 1811. He was a captain in the Revolutionary Army in 1780. "He came home on furlough of ill-health, was unable to return when the furlough expired, and was ordered from headquarters to go to Dr. Warren's Hospital in Boston, which he did, and was there until the war closed; and for this reason he never got his wages. He died soon after the Pension List was granted by Congress. Capt. Nathan Ware, jr., spent time and money to obtain his wages and pension, but to no avail. His wife was always a feeble woman, but a kind and faithful wife and mother, teaching her children to walk in the way of truth and uprightness, and to shun the evils of this world."

> Jason, born at Wrentham, the part afterwards Franklin, March 10, 1756; died May 11, 1843; married, first, Sept. 16, 1782, Polly, daughter of Stephen (Francis, Isaac, Francis) Peabody, from Saccarappa, then living in Warren, Me. (born April 11, 1756; died March 5, 1815). He married (2) April 16, 1817, Sally Severance (born April 21, 1770; died April 3, 1849). Removed to Union, Me. In 1777, probably, visited the town ("Sterlington," Lincoln County), with Joel Adams and Matthias Hawes ("three unmarried men from Franklin, Mass."), and bought a tract of land, on the "N. W. side of Round Pond." "Hawes had 255 acres, Ware 230." "They lived together in a log house which they built on Ware's land near the pond. Their oven was a ledge near their house. Becoming rather dissatisfied with their mode of life they hired Jemima Robbins who began to keep house for them June 29, 1780. Here they continued till the 'Royal Mess,' as they called themselves, was broken up. Each member contributed his share of the provisions and their accounts are still preserved. Joel Adams married Jemima R. Jason Ware settled on the north side of Muddy Brook, where his son Vinal Ware lived later immediately north of him." Matthias Hawes was a soldier in the Revolution. In 1787 helped to lay out a road; one of the town auditors in 1795; etc.

Saccarappa has disappeared. It is marked by Saccarappa Pond (Reservoir) in Worcester County, Massachusetts.

> He studied law in Bennington, Vt., and was instrumental in starting the first newspaper in that part of the State, "The Green Mountain Patriot." He afterwards taught school for some years. The sign "J. Ware's Greek School" can be seen on an old print of Joy's Building, Boston. But his great interest and occupation was the study of foreign languages, in which he became proficient. He devoted the last ten or twelve years of his life to a Polyglot Lexicon of the Bible in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Russian, Spanish, French, Italian and English. His daughter Camilla, who was an excellent linguist, assisted him in his work. Collected a fine library. [See Arvine's Cyclopedia of Anecdotes of Literature and Fine Arts and the Cong. Journal, for accounts of father and daughter.]

"John Metcalf, born at Lebanon, Conn., 26 Feb., 1735 [sic, 1736/7], the fourth son of Jonathan Metcalf and Lydia Hyde of Lebanon, was a grandson of Samuel Hyde of the third generation. He m. 22 Nov., 1761, Anna Allen. They settled at Lebanon, where she d. 25 May, 1776. . . . He then m. about 1778, Martha Maltbie, widow of Josiah Bartholomew, of Goshen, Conn., and settled at Goshen. He d. 4 May, 1800, and she d. 1814."[4]

Walworth (but not Barbour) lists a daughter Anna born in 1765, It is assumed herein that the Anna listed by Barbour (but not Walworth) who was born in 1763 died in infancy. But it is possible that Walworth was mistaken, and that the Anna born in 1765 was really the Anna born in 1763.

Levi Metcalf married Abigail Cutting on October 24, 1776.[3]

See also Ricker, 8737.[4]

That this Levi married Abigail Cutting at age 45 is supported by the research of Allen Harold DuVall, including the report of a professional genealogist, Warren D. Buchanan, who found no evidence of any other Levi in Connecticut at the time. Also, a note in the Boston Transcript, no. 7653-4, 29 October 1928, states "Lebanon vital records have only Abigail Cutting married Levi Metcalf, Oct. 24, 1776."

The conjecture of Jacobus in his Descendants of Robert Waterman, vol. 2, 462, that "Levi Metcalf presumably son or nephew of the last [Levi Metcalf] married Abigail Cutting" is concluded to be false.

Email from Jean Chapman Snow snowstar@earthlink.net on 18 October 2001:

> My connection with Lydia Metcalf, as I may have said, is through Stephen Lee. My first source for that was Margaret Williams Treharne, with whom I corresponded in the 70s. She sent part of a Williams Descendant MSS, which she said came from a longer MSS by her, begun by her grandfather. So her sources are William's Family Bibles, Diary of Sherman Williams, 1882-1918; Letters from Sherman Wms to Margaret, a MS Genealogy of Wms by Sherman Wms, 1846-1923; and letters from Edith Shepard Wilmot, Josephine Wiliams Rhodes, and the following books:

Application for Revolutionary War Pension Benefits by Silence Medcalf, National Archives and Records Administration, W171218, Declaration of Silence Medcalf, dated 22 Aug 1839:

> That her husband the aforesaid Ebenezer Medcalf died on the fifth day of November eighteen hundred and thirty-one.
> She (Silence Medcalf) further declares that she was married to the said Ebenezer Medcalf on the tenth day of April, Seventeen hundred eighty three.

Application for Revolutionary War Pension Benefits by Silence Medcalf, National Archives and Records Administration, W171218, Declaration of Seth Dunham, dated 27 Jan 1840:

> I Seth Dunham of Mansfield aged 65 years being duly sworn do testify and say that I was born and have always lived in the same neighborhood in which Ebenezer Medcalf lived and died and know that the annexed register of births is a correct registration of the births of his children. I further testify that Mrs. Silence Medcalf was his only wife and the mother of the children whose names are annexed. I further testify that I was knowing [sic] to the fact of Mr. Ebenezer Medcalf and Mrs. Silence Medcalf living together as man and wife more than forty five years previous to his death which which [sic] took place eight or nine years since and that the annexed registry was taken by me from the bible in the possession of the Medcalf family.

Attached to Dunham Declaration:

> Alice Metcalf born Dec 9th, 1783
> Ebenezer Metcalf Sept 25th 1785
> Sukey Metcalf April 28, 1788
> William Metcalf Sept 22nd, 1790

> Sibyl Metcalf Sept 23rd 1796
> Sally Metcalf March 3rd 1799
> Joseph Metcalf August 9, 1804
> This certifies that I have this day examined the family register in the possession of the family of Mr. Ebenezer Medcalf formerly of Mansfield and the above is a true copy of said register of the births of the children of Ebenezer and Mrs. Silence Medcalf.

Application for Revolutionary War Pension Benefits by Silence Medcalf, National Archives and Records Administration, W171218, Declaration of William Medcalf, dated 20 Aug 1839:

> I William Medcalf of Mansfield, aged 49 years being duly sworn do testify and say that I am the son of Mr. Ebenezer Medcalf late of said Mansfield, that the same Ebenezer Medcalf died on the 5th day of November Eighteen hundred thirty one and that my mother Silence Medcalf has not intermarried since that and now remains a widow and lives in Mansfield aforesaid.

Application for Revolutionary War Pension Benefits by Silence Medcalf, National Archives and Records Administration, W171218, Declaration of Isaac Morey, dated 17 Aug 1839:

> I Isaac Morey of Coventry in the County of Tolland and State of Connecticut aged 74 years being duly sworn according to law do testify and say that I was present at the marriage of Mr. Ebenezer Medcalf to my sister Silence Morey. They were married at my fathers who then lived in Tolland on the 10th day of April 1788. I further testify that I have lived for the last forty years in the immediate neighborhood of the aforesaid Ebenezer Medcalf and know that my sister has not intermarried since his death which took place about eight years since but is now a widow.

Some of the information is from William Aspin:

Silence, Ebenezer's wife, in her pension application stated that Ebenezer had first a tour of 26 days in the year 1775, in what was called the Lexington Alarm, under the Command of Experience Storrs. Second, he served a tour of five months in a regiment raised by order of the General Assembly of Conn. in a Company commanded by Capt. A. Tyler. Third, he served a tour in the month of August, 1776, in a Company commanded by Capt. Amariah Williams, and marched with the company from Mansfield, Conn. and got as far as Berlin, Conn. and there took sick and was left behind because of his sickness. After his recovery he returned to his home.

This information was taken from Silence (Morey) Metcalf's application for a survivors pension for Ebenezer's service in the Rev. War.

Bob provides a record of entries appearing in the Worthington, Massachusetts, Congregational Church concerning the excommunication of Eli.

Probably August 23, 1789

> Newcomb Cleveland, a Brother of this Chh. presented a Complaint to the Chh against Eli Metcalf a Brother of this Chh for said Metcalf's unjust and fraudulant conduct toward Seth Willis an inhabitant of this town. Which fraudulent conduct of said Metcalf is fully set forth in the Complaint which may be seen on file. Eli Metcalf, the accused, being before cited by the Pastor, and being then present before the Chh, pled not guilty to the Complaint brought against him. Whereupon the complainer was called upon to produce witness or witnesses to support his complaint if he had any. Said Cleveland then produced severall verbal witnesses, and several Depositions. The Chh voted not to proceed upon the witness which had been produced. Then chose Dea. Joshua Phillips, Capt Jonathan Prentice, Sylvenus Parsons, and Capt Marsh, a committee to enquire into the cause of said Complaint, and bring forward before the Chh such Witness as they could find. Then voted to adjourn said meeting to Aug. 27 at 1 o'clock P.M. at the Meeting house.

Attest Josiah Spalding, Pastor

August 23, 1789

Being Lords's day, the Chh being together after Divine Service, voted that the above said Meeting of the Chh stand adjourned to 9 o'clock A.M. the same day and that the parties be notified of the adjournment.

Attest Josiah Spalding, Pastor

August 27, 1789

The Chh met according to their adjournment at 9 o'clock A.M. at the Meeting house, and whereas Eli Metcalf then stood charges, by the aforesaid Complaint, with injustice and fraud in keeping back a part of what was charitably bestowed on or for the above named S. Willis, and entrusted to the care of said Metcalf to deliver to said Willis, who as then in needy circumstances on account of his dwelling house, household furniture, provision &c. being consumed by fire, which took place about the close of the year 1788: also Willis was committed a few weeks after this, and whereas N. Cleveland aforesaid produced a written account of all the articles of Clothing, provision &c. which said Metcalf delivered to said Willis, and said Metcalf had acknowledged before the Chh at their last Meeting, that said account was just: The aforesaid Committee were accordingly called on to make their Report to the Chh. Whereupon Capt. Marsh and Sylvenus Parsons of said Committee reported that they had been to those places where said Metcalf begged alms for said Willis: they therefore produced accounts and Depositions solemnly attested by those persons who charitably gave things to said Metcalf for him to deliver to said Willis, and by comparing the accounts produced by said Committee to the above account of what said Metcalf had delivered to said Willis, it appears in the judgement of the Chh that said Metcalf had begged and received for the use of said Willis, to the amount of a considerable value more than he had delivered to said Willis or given an account of to him. The Chh then after hearing both parties from 9 o'clock A.M. to 12 o'clock then adjourned to 1 o'clock P.M. Then hearing again from 1 o'clock P.M. to 4 P.M. Voted that the Complaint of Newcomb Cleveland against Eli Metcalf was supported, or that said Complaint was just. Furthermore, the said Eli Metcalf was in the judgement of the Chh proved to be guilty of equivocating and departing from the Chh. The Chh. then voted that Eli Metcalf receive an admonition by their Pastor in the name of the Chh, if he did not then become truly penitent, that he receive the second admonition. The Meeting was then dissolved.

Attest Josiah Spalding, Pastor

Early 1790

The second admonition being drawn up in writing was delivered to Eli Metcalf for his offences as recorded above. Delivered in the presence of Daniel Woodard, a member of this chh one day in the last week in Dec. 1789 pr me Josiah Spalding, Pastor.

June 24, 1790

The Chh being together and duly warned for said purpose at the Meetinghouse June 24, 1790. And whereas our Brother Eli Metcalf has yet made us satisfaction for his offences which were proved against him on our Meeting in Aug 27, 1789. and whereas he has been kindly and faithfully warned and admonished for his offences once and again, voted that our Pastor draw up in writing an act of Excommunication of him to be laid before us at our next Meeting.

Attest Josiah Spalding, Pastor

July 11, 1790

The Chh being together at the Meeting house haveing been duly warned, and agreeable to the resolve or vote of the Chh at their last Meeting: the following was exhibited to the Chh by their Pastor.

"The Church of Christ in Worthington, To our Brother Eli Metcalf of this town. Whereas at a Chh Meeting, Aug. 27,1789, we unaminously judged you to be guilty of injustice and Fraud, in keeping a part to yourself of what was charitably bestowed on Seth Willis of this town, and committed to your care to deliver to him: which crime with the aggravated circumstances of it was committed by you about the middle of Jan 1789, as set forth in the Complaint exhibited to us against you by our Brother Newcomb Cleveland, on the 7th July, 1789, and at the abovesaid Meeting of Aug. 27, was, in our view, proved against you by full and impartial evidence or evidences: and at the same time you was unanimously judged by us to be guilty of equivocating, evading, and departing from the truth in the above said trial, and whereas, we have, as we hope, kindly, and faithfully admonished you once and again of this your wickedness, also used all that forbearance, lenity, and candour, and tryed every method with you which our holy profession requires: and you still remain obstinate; and in your pretended Confession which you sent in to us dated Sept. 11, 1789 appear to us to plead innocent as to your conduct to Seth Willis: your obstinancy and impenetency for your above name wickedness also appears in your neglecting to attend publick worship with us at the House of God. This therefore is, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, wholly to cut you off from all Christian Fellowship of Chh priveledges with us, and finally to give you up, and consider you as an heathen man and publican: or have us kind of friendly society or Communion with you, till you manifest a spirit of humiliation and repentance according to the nature of your offences, or untill you give Christian satisfaction to us, to the publick, and to Seth Willis, whom you have thus injured. We are persuaded that faithfulness for the honor of the Redeemer's cause, faithfulness for your immortal interest, and faithfulness in bearing publick testimony against every publick injury to the cause of the poor and indigent; justifies us in proceeding with you in this last, and so painful act of Excommunication; which duty of ours is so clearly enjoined on us in God's work. And if you are not wholly past feeling this, we humbly trust, must awaken a sense of conviction in you, and work repentance in you; and for this we greatly long you in the bowels of Jesus Christ: We therefore must leave you in the hands of that God whose Grace is all sufficient: hoping that we shall ever pray both in private and in publick for you, that you may be recovered, and your precious soul saved in the day of the Lord. Humbly believing yet what we bind on Earth shall be bound in Heaven, which God grant for Jesus sake. Amen."

The Chh being together this day July 11, 1790 and unanimously voted the above to be their act and proceeding against the aforesaid Eli Metcalf: that it be Recorded among the Chh. Records; and that a copy of it be sent to the Offender. Also unanimously voted that it be read publickly or before the whole Congregation on the Sabbeth, and that a copy of it be sent to the Rev. Pastor of the Chh at Northampton, for him to read to said Chh and Congregation, if he shall think proper.

By order of the Chh.

Josiah Spalding, Pastor

A copy of the above was delivered to Eli Metcalf in the presence of Mr. Garner, his neighbour, Aug 17, 1790.

Pr. me J. Spalding, Pastor

Sept. 7, 1809

Mr. Prentice appeared upon the sabbath and before the Church and Congregation confessed his fault, asked forgiveness, and was forgiven.

The same day Mr. Eli Metcalf made a public confession of the sins for which he was excommunicated many years ago, and was restored to his former standing in the church.

Jan. 14, 1810

Appointed Maj. Marsh & Mr. E. Parrish to call upon Mr. E. Metcalf to inquire why he does not attend public worship &c. with us, likewise to visit Mr. Dewey and his wife for the same purpose.

Aug. 23, 1811

Mr. Eli Metcalf having been sewed with a citation informing him that the church would at this meeting take such measures relative to his long neglect of duty as they should judge expedient and he not having attended, though he was well enough to be at work, a vote was passed to reject him as an irregular member.

Bob says that Eli, to his credit, did serve in the Revolutionary War as a drummer: "Drummer, Capt. Ebenezer Webber's co., Lieut. Col. Samuel Williams's regt.; engaged Dec 17, 1776; discharged March 20, 1777; service 3 mos. 14 days at the Northward, including 11 days (220 Miles) travel home. Roll sworn to at Chesterfield and endorsed 'Maj'r Claps Reg't.'"

> Captain Obed was in the Revolutionary War from Franklin, Mass. He marched twice to Rhode Island on an alarm, July 28-Aug 7, 1780 & Mar 3-17, 1781; then served in the army until his discharge Nov 29, 1781. His records describe him as 5 foot 3 inches, dark complexion. Obed was a captain in the Army and he retained that title until his death. Obed and Abigail lived in Croydon township (estab. 1763) of Cheshire County, NH (estab. 1769). The census shows them there in 1790, 1800, 1810 & 1820. In 1827 that part of Cheshire County became Sullivan County, and in 1830 they were listed in Croydon township of Sullivan County. After Obed died in 1836 (73 years old) Abigail lived with their son Moses until her death in 1852 (89 years old). They were both buried in the Pinacle cemetery in Croydon township, Sullivan County, NH.

"Thomas Metcalf and Sibbyl Chapin were joined in marriage together Novr 26th 1788."[4]

See also Ricker, 8739.[5]

Thomas was born on 9 August 1764 in Oakham, Massachusetts.[6] He married Sybil Chapin on 26 November 1788 in Enfield, Hartford County, Connecticut. During 1785–88 Thomas was active in Enfield in several land transactions.[7] He was living in Enfield in 1790 with his wife and daughter Sybil.[8]

Thomas moved to Corinth, Orange County, Vermont, in early March 1800, probably to join his mother and brothers Ebenezer, Samuel and Alpha.[9] The move seems to have been temporary and he apparently returned to Enfield by 1801 when son Ebenezer was born.

For many years Thomas was a pilot on rafts on the Connecticut River.[10] He ultimately settled in Chardon, Geauga County, Ohio, in 1819,[11] joining his son Thomas and daughters Sybil and Sidney who had arrived in 1817. He died on 16 March 1827 in Chardon. Sybil became blind and helpless about 1839 and died there on 6 March 1859.

Horace Metcalf, Thomas' nephew, wrote in 1903:[12]

Thomas . . . Born August 9th 1764 married Sybil Chapin and acted as pilot for rafts for many years on Connecticut River finally settled in Chardon, Ohio where he raised a large family of children that settled in various parts of the west and south. The youngest of them, Oren, in Natchez, Mississippi. He was living as late as 1888. Martin Metcalf says he [Oren] was a Brigadier General in the Confederate service in the war of the Rebellion [not true, just Sheriff of Natchez] and that he had several sons eminent lawyers in San Francisco, California.

Thomas and Sybil had twelve children, all but Asa born in Enfield, Connecticut. Herein the terminal e is added to the surname of those emigrating to Mississippi.

Exposition on Sybil Chapin:

Chapin[1] said Sybil of Chardon, Ohio, daughter of Nathaniel and Sibil (Terry) Chapin, was born on 6 December 1768 in Enfield, Connecticut. She married Thomas Metcalf on 26 November 1788 in Enfield. Thomas was born there on 9 August 1764. They had twelve children. He died on 16 March 1827 or 1828 in Chardon, and Sybil died there on 6 March 1859 after being blind and helpless for twenty years.

Sybil was enumerated in the 1850 federal census of Chardon Township, Geauga County, Ohio, in the household of her son Thomas as follows:[2]

Thomas Metcalf, 50 [sic, 52], male, farmer, real property $6000, born Connecticut.
Paulina Metcalf, 40, female, born Ohio.
Sybil Metcalf, 81, female, born Connecticut.
Horace Metcalf, 21, male, farmer, born Ohio.
Armstrong Metcalf, 19, male, farmer, born Ohio.
Alfred Metcalf, 17, male, farmer, born Ohio.
Lovira Metcalf, 13, female, born Ohio, attended school within the year.
Henry Metcalf, 11, male, born Ohio, attended school within the year.
George Metcalf, 9, male, born Ohio, attended school within the year.
Thomas Metcalf Jun., 7, male, born Ohio, attended school within the year.
Ellen Metcalf, 4, female, born Ohio.
Frank Metcalf, 2, male, born Ohio.

Sybil was not enumerated in 1860 since she died in 1859.

Exposition on David Metcalf:

"Metcalf, David, s. Samuel and Hannah, Sept. 15, 1766."[1]

"Metcalf, David, s. Samuel, Sept. 29, 1766, bap. C. R."[2]

"Metcalf, David and Mrs. Candice Stratton, int[ention] Aug. 13, 1797."[3] The "Mrs." was an honorific title. As noted below, the actual marriage took place on 5 October 1797.

Horace Metcalf, David's son, wrote in 1903:[4]

> David . . . Born September 16, 1766 died in Corinth Vermont November 7, 1827. Married in 1797 October 5th to his [first] cousin Candace Stratton daughter of John Stratton and Mary Metcalf. They had 11 children 6 boys and 5 girls. Two of the girls Candace and Hannah and a boy died young in Newport Quebec. David worked much with his brothers on and along the Connecticut River and shingle making at which he excelled making sometimes upward of 2000 a day of best quality.
> In the latter part of 1799 or in 1800 he with his wife infant daughter and his wife's parents moved to what was then Lower Canada now Quebec and settled on a farm in what is now the township of Newport, then unorganized. Newport is ten miles square. Here eight of their children were born.
> To clear up a new farm and raise up a family of children where everything they had to purchase was dear and at the same time to accumulate wealth was a different matter but they managed to make a comfortable living till the remarkably cold summer of 1816 when almost all crops were cut off by the frost and many families were brought face to face with starvation during the next winter. My father with many others went into the northern part of New Hampshire and then worked at shingle making sending back his earnings to his family.
> During this winter my father finding himself so crippled financially that he would be unable to seed his farm in the spring and provide for his family till he could he could get returns from the farm, abandoned his farm and moved to Corinth Vt. and into the house of his stepfather (Nathan Lamb) his mother having died a few years previous [in 1812].
> This was the latter part of winter or very early in the spring of 1817. Here I was born June 18th following.
> When my parents moved to Corinth their second son [Cyrus] found a home with his Uncle John Metcalf in North Charleston and their third son [Caleb] with his Uncle [Hubbard] Glidden also in North Charleston, and Mary the eldest girl found a home with a farmer in Corinth.

Not long after my birth my parents moved to Bradford where their youngest child was born April 1820. A little later they moved again to Corinth near where I was born and again in the spring of 1829 into a house not far from the center of town where they lived till my father's death in 1847 November 7th. During the last thirty years he maintained himself chiefly by coopering or cultivating a piece of land on shares.

Horace later adds:[5]

Two adventures that occurred to my father in his boyhood days are perhaps worthy of record.

Running Against a Bear

At the time this happened he was living from home, and had been sent on some errand, and was returning home through a dense peice of woods in the evening, which in the woods was very dark.

As he was feeling his way along he came pat against some animal which turned and ran as if badly frightened and jumped over a fence near by. My father said he was much frightened and ran for all he was worth not withstanding the darkness.

When he got to the house where he was living very much exhausted, he was asked "What's the matter?" I ran against a bear out there in the dark run (the path over which he came was always called the dark run) "Run against a bear?" said the man "It was only our yearling heifer" "It was not" said my father "For she is right at the door now" "Well you have run against no bear" said the man.

To several callers who happened in the next day, the man had to tell in a fun making way how David ran against a bear the evening before.

At last one man to whom he told the story said "Perhaps he did for there are bears about for I have myself seen where they have pulled apart old stumps and logs to get the black ants, and you know" said he "that bears are stupid animals and might not notice the approach of one who came along still."

After asking my father a few questions the caller said "Come let us go out to where David said it was." They went and found an Indian turnip root (or Jack in the pulpit as it is often called) partially dug out and bear tracks where it had jumped over the fence. David was laughed at no more about running against a bear.

The other adventure was of a more fearful and dangerous character.

Chased by a Catamount

This adventure occurred when my father was living at home.

A woman had come to my grandfather's either on business or a visit. She came on horse back as part of the way was over a road through a piece of woods. When she was ready to return it was getting dark so my father was told to take a horse and go with her through the woods.

After passing through the wood and a set of bars the woman was not far from the highway so they parted at the bars and as my father was putting up the last bar he heard a most terrifying scream as of a woman in fright. My father's first thought was that the woman's horse had shied and thrown her.

His own horse was so much frightened that it was difficult to hold him. The scream was quickly repeated and much nearer than before. My father sprang upon the horse and gave him the rein. He needed no urging and darted off at a fearful pace. As he did so the animal sprung into the path behind him, and uttering most blood curdling screams pursued him close to the heels of the horse through the woods and to a considerable distance into the clearing. When my father found the animal had ceased to pursue, he with difficulty reined in his horse.

On his arrival home he put up the horse and went into the house where he found his father [Samuel] walking the floor and much disturbed in manner and he asked "Where did you race that horse so coming home?" "How did you know I did" said my father "Because" said grandfather "I heard his shoes striking the stones as you came over that stony part of the road." After my father had told his story he was not blamed for racing the horse.

I do not know how old my father was when this event happened, but he was only about 19 when his father died so it must be previous to that time.

Exposition on Samuel Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Samuel, s. Samuel and Hannah, Oct. 18, 1770."[1]

"Metcalf, Samuel, s. Samuel of Oakham, Oct. 28, 1770, bap. C. R."[2]

Horace Metcalf, Samuel's nephew, wrote in 1903:[3]

> Samuel . . . The 5th child of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah Richardson was born in Oatham [Oakham] Mass. October 18th 1770, married Eunice Brown by whom it is said he had 15 children. He lived awhile on a farm adjoining his stepfathers [in Corinth] and later went to Wisconsin where many of his descendants now [1903] reside.

Samuel and his family were enumerated in Corinth in 1800.[4]

Samuel was enumerated in the 1850 federal census of Yorkshire, Cattaraugus County, New York, in the household of his daughter Eunice as follows:[5]

John Bamus, 50, male, farmer, real property $2520, born New York.
Eunice Bamus, 48, female, born Vermont.
Monroe Bamus, 21, male, farmer, born New York, atttended school within the year.

676. [7]John Metcalf, son of [6]Sgt. Samuel Metcalf [no. 271] and Hannah Richardson. Born on 30 Dec. 1772 in Oakham, Worcester County, Massachusetts. Died in Dec. 1849 in North Charlestown, Sullivan County, New Hampshire, about 77 years old.

Married Ruby Converse, dau. of John Converse (son of Josiah Converse and Mary Sabin) and Kezia Nichols, on 14 April 1796 in Charlestown, Sullivan County, New Hampshire when 23 years old (Ruby was 18 years old). Ruby Converse b. in 1777/8 in Thompson, Windham County, Connecticut; d. on 24 July 1859 in North Charlestown, 81 years old.

Issue of John Metcalf and Ruby Converse:

1519 i. son [8]Gov. Ralph Metcalf b. on 21 Nov. 1798 in Charlestown.

1520 ii. son Horace Metcalf b. on 10 May 1801 in Charlestown.

Exposition on John Metcalf:

"Metcalf, John, s. Samuel and Hannah, Dec. 30, 1772."[1]

Horace Metcalf, John's nephew, wrote in 1903:[2]

> John . . . The 7th [sic, 6th] child of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah Richardson born December 30, 1772 in Oatham [Oakham] Mass. married Ruby Converse and settled in North Charleston New Hampshire where he kept a public house, also a store. He had two sons the eldest Ralph, who was educated at Dartmouth College New Hampshire studied law and was at one time Governor of New Hampshire. The other son succeeded his father in the store which he sold out and went to Toronto, Canada and went into the foundry business and late in life returned to North Charleston to end his days. His wife was a Chence [sic]. I know not what children either of these sons had.

The 1850 federal census mortality schedule lists the death of John Metcalf, male, age 77, born Massachusetts, from lung fever in December [1849] in Sullivan County, New Hampshire.

Ruby was enumerated in the 1850 federal census of Charlestown, Sullivan County, New Hampshire, next door to her son Horace as follows:[3]

Roby Metcalf, 72, female, real property $500, born Connecticut.
Aleina C. Wright, 41, female, born New Hampshire.

Exposition on Joseph Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Joseph, s. Samuel and Hannah, Aug. 24, 1774."[1]

Joseph Metcalf and Diantha Clay, both of Putney, were married on 20 August 1822 in Putney.[2]

Joseph's first wife Sally died on 24 November 1821, age 40. His second wife Diantha died on 6 January 1851, age 62. Joseph then was dismissed from the Putney church to Erie, Pennsylvania, on 13 April 1851. He died on 27 January 1869, age 94 years and five months. He and his two wives are buried in the Old North Burying Ground in Putney.[3]

Horace Metcalf, Joseph's nephew, wrote in 1903:[4]

> Joseph . . . The 6th [sic, 7th] child of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah Richardson was born August 24, 1774 in Oatham [Oakham] Mass. He married and settled in Putney Vermont where he for many years followed the business of a tailor and it was said of him that he never promised a garment to a customer that was not ready for him at the time promised.
> I have heard my father relate this anecdote of him. He once went to an evening entertainment where he enjoyed himself with others till 12 o'clock when he announced that he must leave. He was earnestly urged to stay longer but he said no, I have a mans satin vest for 10 o'clock tomorrow and it is not yet begun. He left and went into his shop and at 10 o'clock the vest was ready for his customer.
> Late in life after the death of his wife he went to live with one of his sons in Erie, Pennsylvania.

Joseph and his second wife Diantha were enumerated in the 1850 federal census of Putney, Windham County, Vermont, as follows:[5]

Joseph Metcalf, 75, male, real property $1250, born Massachusetts.
Diantha Metcalf, 61, female, born Vermont.

Exposition on Sally Hutchins:

Sally Metcalf, wife of Joseph Metcalf, died on November 24, 1821 in Putney.[1]

Given the middle name of son Joseph and probably of son Samuel, and the first name of first son Josiah, Sally's father was probably Josiah Hutchins. A Josiah Hutchins appears in the 1810 census of Putney[2] with children of various ages. Sally was married by 1806 but would have fit into the census age brackets given in Josiah's entry.

Given the first name of Sally's first daughter, it is possible Sally's mother's first name was Adaline.

Exposition on Jane Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Jane, d. Samuel and Hannah, July 30, 1776."[1]

Horace Metcalf, Jane's nephew, wrote in 1903:[2]

> Jane . . . The eighth child of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah Richardson was born in Oatham [Oakham] Mass. July 30th 1776. She married a Joseph Orn son of Joseph Orn who was a soldier of the Revolution. They had issue Solomon who settled in the North East part of Vermont, Samuel, and Joseph who married by the name of Cox. Of Joseph I can say no more but Samuel settled late in life in Norwich Vermont his mother living with him.
> Other children of Joseph and Jane were Robert, Smith, Rosalind, Emeline and George. Robert settled in Irasburg Vt. One of his [Robert's] sons George M. [sic, William H.] learned the printers trade in St. Jo[h]nsbury. I have no record of what became of the other children named.
> Jane separated from her husband on account of his drinking habits and abuse. He left that part of the country and was heard of no more.

Clarke said:[3]

> Joseph Orne (Horn) married November, 1793, Jane Metcalf, a descendant of Michael Metcalf of Norwich, England, and of Dedham, Mass. She was born in Leicester [sic], Mass., July 30, 1776.

> Samuel Orne, born in Corinth, Vt., May 7, 1800.

Solomon Orne, born in Corinth, Vt., Oct. 2, 1801.

Joseph Orne, 3d, born June 23, 1805.

Epithis Smith Orne, born Oct. 8, 1808.

Robert S. Orne, born Oct. 10,1810; died Dec. 1, 1895, and was buried in Bristol, R. I.

Ralph Metcalf Orne, born Jan. 25, 1813.

Roslinda Orne, born April 19, 1815.

Emeline Cushing Orne, born Feb. 19, 1820, marriedf Otis King.

George W. Orne, born Dec. 1, 1823.

Joseph Orne [3d] was married in Corinth, Vt., Nov. 13, 1826, to Elizabeth Anne Cox. (Town record say Carr.)

Joseph Orne [the father] died in Albany, Vt., in 1845.

Mrs. Jane (Jennie) [the mother] died in Bristol, R. I., March, 1860.

Clarke also said in a footnote:[4]

Jane Metcalf was married to Joseph Orne, Nov. 1793. Jane Orne was the daughter of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah his wife. Hannah, the mother of Jane, was the daughter of Thomas and Jane Richardson of Leicester, Mass. Mrs. Jane Richardson was the daughter of Captain Nathaniel Downing and his wife Margaret Pynchon, both of whom were of illustrious descent.

1529 ii. son John M. Glidden b. on 14 Dec. 1810 in Charlestown.

Exposition on Elizabeth Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Elizabeth, d. Samuel and Hannah, March 14, 1779."[1]

Horace Metcalf, Elizabeth's nephew, wrote in 1903:[2]

Elisabeth . . . The ninth child of Samuel and Hannah was born in Oatham [Oakham] Mass. March 14, 1779. Married Hubbard Glidden who owned a nice meadow farm near North Charleston village N. H. I do not know if they had more than one child, a boy named John, who was a worthy son of worthy parents.

It was the pride of the family to have all their work done in the best manner and to have everything they sold from the farm to have it the choicest of its kind. And for which they always obtained a little better than the highest market price.

Some who could not get their price used to say "oh it's Glidden butter; Glidden's cheese or Glidden's pork, folks will pay one or two cents a pound for it than for any other persons butter, cheese or pork that is just as good" and there was some truth in it as they sold any but 1st class. So much for a name.

Exposition on Alpha Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Alpha, d. [sic] Samuel and Hannah, Oct. 27, 1780."[1]

The Corinth Town History notes Alpha:[2]

Alpha Metcalf, son of Samuel and a native of Oakham, Mass., came to Corinth in 1788 at the age of eight years. He remained here until his death May 10, 1867. His wife was Mehitable Stevens of Enfield, N. H. [sic] and their ch. were:

John—.

Alpheus—b. Sept. 4, 1824, m. Emily, dau. of Charles and Lydia (Wright) Childs, (b. Aug. 1, 1835) of West Fairlee. He d. Jan. 28, 1903. They resided on the home place, later known as the Selah Simons place and now owned in part by Kenneth Appleton of Topsham. Alpheus was selectman four years, town auditor seven years, and justice of the peace eight years. He was the last surviving member of his family.

Horace Metcalf, Alpha's nephew, wrote in 1903:[3]

Alpha . . . The tenth child of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah Richardson and last son, was born in Oatham [Oakham] Mass. October 27th 1780.

Some said that as he was the last son instead of the first he should have been called Omega rather than Alpha.

I have heard my father say that at his christening the Clergyman asked "What name?" "Alpha" said my grandfather. "Alpheus?" asked the clergyman. "No, Alpha," said my grandfather. "You mean Alpheus don't you?" says the clergyman. This vexed my grandfather and he replied "I shall spell his name A-l-p-h-a" said my grandfather and he was then christened Alpha.

My grandfather died when Alpha was in the fifth year of his age. Some two or three or four years later his widow married Nathan Lamb who was a soldier in the same regiment as my grandfather in the war of the Revolution. In 1788 my step grandfather and my grandmother with her youngest children, Alpha then being about eight years old, moved to Corinth Vermont and settled on one of the farms previously owned by my Uncle Ebenezer. From that time up to manhood he worked at times at various places. At one time when living with his mother he was sent on an errand to a neighbor about three miles from home by the road, but not more than half that distance across through the woods. He was told to remain over night as it would probably be too late to come back that night, but after he had done his errand he thought he had time to get back before dark. He started on his return. There were spotted trees to guide persons when going across but darkness coming on sooner than he expected he lost the line of spotted trees and finding himself lost laid himself down on a flat stone, but not to sleep for fear of wild animals. So he lay and listened to the tinkling of the bells of the cows that were running in the woods. When morning came he found his way out to the road and went home, surprising his mother by his early arrival, but when she learned that he had lain in the woods all night she trembled violently and it was long before she could calm herself, though she was a woman not easily discompared.

Alpha married Mehitable Stevens of Enfield, New Hampshire [sic, Connecticut] and I think moved first into a home not far from his stepfathers and soon after his stepfather's death in September 16th 1817. Alpha died May 1867.

The children were born to them Hannah . . . Zerniah or Sophia as she was usually called . . . Alpheus . . . .

Alpha, his family and his daughter Hannah's family were enumerated in the 1850 federal census of Corinth, Orange Couunty, Vermont, as follows:[4]

Alpha Metcalf, 69, male, farmer, real property $1600, born Massachusetts.
Mahitable Metcalf, 65, female, born Vermont.
Alpheus Metcalf, 25, male, farmer, born Vermont.
Samuel T. Shaw, 34, male, farmer, born Vermont.
Hannah Shaw, 35, female, born Vermont.
Livina Shaw, 4, female, born Vermont.

Alpha and his son Alpheus' family were enumerated in the 1860 federal census of Corinth, Orange Couunty, Vermont, as follows:[5]

Alpha Metcalf, 79, male, farmer, real property $1250, born Massachusetts.
Alpheus Metcalf, 35, male, farmer, real property $1250, personal property $573, born Vermont.
Emily Metcalf, 24, female, born Vermont.

Mrs. McCrillis, 36, female, born Vermont.
Harriet McCrillis, 3, female, born Vermont.

Exposition on Hannah Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Hannah, d. Samuel and Hannah, June 15, 1782."[1]

Horace Metcalf, Hannah's nephew, wrote in 1903:[2]

> Hannah . . . The 11th child of Samuel Metcalf and Hannah Richardson was born June 15th 1782 married a man by the name of Hodges (I think his name was Andrew). I know but little of his early life or middle age except that he used to make steel yards; later he used to loan money at a high rate of interest and by the strictest economy. Acquired quite a competency.
> The last of his life he lived in Hatley Lower Canada now Quebec. He was blind for many years before his death. Of their children one was Mary who married a Webster and settled near her parents. One of her [Mary's] sons has figured considerably as a purchaser of Bankrupt store goods which he sells out in various villages in the Eastern Townships.

Another daughter of Hannah married Salvin [Calvin] Richardson and settled in Waterville and had quite a family. Two other daughters of Hannah one of which was named Diantha never married. A fifth daughter Martha, a good honest intelligent girl married but I have been told not happily! Hannah's sixth child was a boy named Ephraim. He had most of his father's property and added to it by farming and loaning money like his father. He married and lived on the home place and raised a family. All the children of Hannah Metcalf Hodges are deceased [by 1903].

Exposition on Samuel Twiss:

"Twiss, Samuel [h. Lydia], Oct. __, 1839. Church record, Second Congregational, West Medway."[1]

Some of the information is from Mary Miller Housworth. She adds:

Database: Massachusetts Soldiers & Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17 Vols.

Volume 15 , page 322: Swiss, Samuel. Private, Capt. John Minott's co., Col. Dike's regt.; muster roll for Dec., 1776-Feb., 1777; credited to town of Chelmsford; enlisted Dec. -, 1776; regiment raised to serve until March 1, 1777. [See Samuel Twiss.]

Volume 16, page 217: Twiss, Samuel. Receipt dated Chelmsford, April 19, 1776, signed by said Twiss and others, for wages for service from Feb. 5, 1776, to April 1, 1776, in Capt. John Ford's co., Col. Roberson's (Robinson's) regt.; also, Private, Capt. John Minott's co., Col. Dike's regt.; pay abstract for equipments for Dec., 1776, Jan. and Feb., 1777. [See Samuel Swiss.]

From EARLY MEDWAY SETTLERS & LAND RECORDS, by Francis D. Donovan:

Samuel-5 (Jonathan-4, John-3, Peter-2, Peter-1) Twiss, born in Danvers, Mass., 1757, son of Rev. Jonathan and Elizabeth (Chapman) Twiss, came here from Salem in 1785, and married the same year, Lydia White, daughter of William White who accomplished the interior finish carpentry on the meeting house.

Samuel lived on the Rockwood Lot on Winthrop Street on land purchased from Peter Wight.

Two legal notices in recent years published in Dedham give his farm as a boundary.

Around the time of the first World War, and into the 1930's, there was an abattoir at the west end of the Twiss property, owned by the Katzeff family who had a popular butcher shop in Ashland, the Whitney Beef Company, on the site of the present Shaw's supermarket.

Samuel Twiss died in 1839, and his widow died in 1843.

Children: Nathan bp. 1788- m. 1816 Abigail Harding, widow of Alpheus Salle bp. 1789- died before 1819

Note: In 1786, Asa Fuller sold 50 acres, with buildings, to "Samuel Twiss of Franklin, ship joiner," for the sum of 200 pounds. This was part of the later Twiss place.

In memory of/ Capt./ SIMEON PARTRIDGE./ who died Jan. 9. 1832./ in the 72d. year/of his age./

"When our pilgrimage is o'er,
With all it's care and all it's pains,
We have a home forever more,
Where peace and happiness ever reigns."

In memory of/ Mrs. JERUSHA, wife of/ Capt. Simeon PARTRIDGE,/ who died/ March 23, 1834./ AEt. 70./

"There is hope beyond the grave,
Which soothes the troubled mind,
For Jesus has atonement made,
And ransom'd all mankind."

Trancribed Keene vital records[3] state that the following children of Michael Metcalf died: Susanna on 7 May 1766, age five months, and Daniel on 16 December 1776, age 20 years. They also state that Ensign Michael Metcalf died on 16 August 1777, killed in the Battle of Bennington, that Susanna Metcalf died on 17 April 1790, age 18 years and that Miss Anna Metcalf died on 30 August 1845, age 82 years.

"Michael Metcalf—KIA Rev. War in 1777—mar. Sarah Allen."[4]

It is possible that this Michael Metcalf married the Sarah Allen who first married a John Wells and second a Michael Metcalf, according to the Hadley, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, records.[5]

But that Sarah's oldest child by John is only a year younger than Michael. If we were to accept this possiblity, the birth dates of the oldest child by John (1729) and of Michael's son (1758) would indicate Sarah was born between 1710 and 1713, and was at least 17 years older than Michael—not likely.

In any case, it is assumed that the Sarah Allen who was the widow of John Wells was the second wife of Ens. Michael's father, leaving open the identity of the Sarah that married Ens. Michael.

Married _____ Chandler.

Issue of Ens. Burgess Metcalf and _____ Chandler:

1561 i. son [8]Chandler Metcalf b. on 7 April 1798 in Piermont.

ii. son John Metcalf b. in 1803; d. in 1858, 54 or 55 years old.

Exposition on Ens. Burgess Metcalf:

"Metcalf, Burgress, s. Michael and Melatiah, Aug. 28, 1741. [Medcalf, ch. Michael Jr., church record, First Congregational, East Medway (now Millis).]"[1]

Cutter said:[2]

Burgess Metcalf, son of Michael Metcalf, was born at Medway, August 28, 1741. He was a soldier in the revolution, an ensign in the fifth company. (See p. 924, vol. xvi, State Papers of New Hampshire). In 1790 the federal census shows that he was living in Piermont, New Hampshire, and had in his family four males over sixteen, three under that age and seven females. The names of all of his children are not given.

The history of Piermont in the Grafton county history states that Burgess Metcalf came there early and died there in 1816; that he had a large family; that his son John, born in 1803, died in 1858. The Chandler family settled in Piermont also, and doubtless intermarried with the Metcalfs.

iii. dau. Jemima Metcalf b. on 19 Aug. 1777 in Keene.

iv. son John Metcalf b. on 14 Sep. 1779 in Keene.

Exposition on Ezra Metcalf:

Trancribed Keene vital records[1] state that Ezra and Abigail Metcalf had the following children: Thamer born 6 September 1773 and died 2 October 1773; Polly born 8 Novembeer 1774; Jemima born 19 August 1777; and John born 14 September 1779.

Trancribed Keene vital records[2] state that Polly Metcalf, child of Ezra Metcalf, died on 15 August 1789.

The evidence that Ezra was the son of John is based on Ezra's first son being named John, probably after Ezra's father; Ezra's first daughter being named Thamer, probably after Ezra's mother; and Ezra's other daughters named Polly and Jemima, probably after his sisters Molly and Jemima. But no record of Ezra's birth has yet been found.
