1683. 8Samuel Bancroft, son of 7Hon. Samuel Bancroft [no. 768] and Sarah Holt. Born on 15 April 1761 in Reading, Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

Married Sarah Poole, dau. of Jonathan Poole (son of Samuel Poole and Rebecca _____) and Sarah Eaton (dau. of Nathaniel Eaton and Lydia _____). Sarah Poole b. on 2 Sep. 1764 in Reading.

Issue of Samuel Bancroft and Sarah Poole:

3284 i. son 9Samuel Bancroft b. on 2 March 1784 in Reading.

Exposition on Samuel Bancroft:

Samuel was born on 15 April 1761 in Reading. He married Sarah Poole, perhaps the daughter of Samuel Sheldon Poole who removed from Reading to Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, in 1775.[1]

Samuel's birth does not appear in the Reading vital records. Also, Samuel Sheldon Poole was born on 25 March 1751 in Reading ("Poole, Samuel Sheldin, s. of Jonathan and Mary, Mar. 24, 1751."[2]) and was only about ten years older than Samuel Bancroft, so he was not likely to have been the father of this Sarah Poole. It is probable that this Sarah Poole was the daughter of Jonathan Pool and Sarah Eaton.

"Samuel their [Samuel and Sarah's] Son was born april 15: 1761 and they removed to onslow the Second day of September 1761"[3]

He made a profession of religion, in Nov. 1821, and commenced fitting for the ministry at the Academies of Chesterfield, N. H., and Amherst, Mass., and entered Dartmouth Coll., 1824. His studies were arrested in his 2d yr. by a severe and protracted illness. On his recovery he taught school awhile, and then studied theology with Rev. Dr. Ide, of Medway. He was ord. as Evangelist for the West at Medway, Aug. 25, 1831, and commenced preaching at Guilford, O., Oct. 2, 1831. Half of the time for a few years was spent in other neighboring places. In Sept. 21, 1836, he was installed as pastor, in which relation he continued until May 8, 1849, when it was dissolved at his own request. The reason of this step was found in the prevalent impression among a portion of the people, that as he had been with them a long time, a change of laborers might be beneficial. The pastor was willing the experiment should be tried. But after a trial of about 3 yrs. he was invited to return, which he did, and accepted the invitation, March 1852. In the interval he was that stated supply of the ch. in Wayne, O. (See Hist. of Mendon Association 313 p.) She is m. ch. and resides in Guilford, O."[1]
